OBITUARY

—oo—

MRS. ELIZABETH O'BRIEN.

We deeply regret to announce the death of Mrs. Elizabeth O'Brien, wife of Mr. George O'Brien, of 17 Lower Hartstonge Street, Limerick, which sad event took place on Wednesday, at the City Home and Hospital, after a brief illness. The deceased, who was a native of Boulattin, Tour, Newport, County Tipperary, was highly respected and esteemed by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. She was of a quiet and unassuming disposition and a devout Catholic. She was sister of Mr. Michael Purcell, of Tour, and of Sister Margaret Patrici, St. Joseph's, New Jersey, U.S.A., and cousin of the late Martin Ryan (Lacken) T.D. She was a staunch supporter of the national movement, and during the Black and Tan regime her home was ever at the disposal of those on the "run."

The remains were interred, on Thursday, at Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery. The funeral was largely attended by many sympathisers and friends.

Chief mourners were:—George O'Brien (husband); Joseph and Georgie (sons); Michael Purcell (brother); Dan Birrane, Old Pallas; Simon Kearney, Killoscully; Misses Amy and Katty Kearney (cousins), etc., etc.

RATHKEALE CATTLE FAIR

Being held on a Bank Holiday, the supply of cattle on offer at Rathkeale fair on Monday was small. Trade was slow with prices showing a downward tendency. Quotations:—1½-year-old heifers, £12 to £18; 1½-year-old bullocks, £7 to £15; 2½-year-old heifers, £16 to £22; 2½-year-old bullocks, £14 to £18; beef, 50/- to 57/- per cwt. (l.w.); springing cows, £25 to £37 10s.; old cows, £14 to £19; sheep, 100/- to 115/-; bonhams, 70/- to 100/-.

... O, Jesus, through your Sacred Heart, To Whom we trust and pray, Grant to the soul of Annie Eternal rest to-day,

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

KEATING—The mother, brother and sister of the late Kathleen (Kitty) Keating, of 23, Charlotte Quay, Limerick, wish to express their grateful thanks to all who sent Mass cards, flowers, telegrams and letters of sympathy in their recent tragic bereavement. In particular they wish to convey their expressions of gratitude to their very kind neighbours, and to all who called personally and attended the funeral. Trusting this announcement will be accepted as a grateful acknowledgment, as it would be impossible to thank all individually.

KENNELLY—The husband and family of the late Mrs. Martin Kennelly, Carnagh, Shanagolden, wish to return sincere thanks to all those who sympathised with them in their recent sudden and sad bereavement; to all those who sent Mass cards and letters of sympathy, and to those who called personally or attended the funeral. Trusting this will be accepted in grateful acknowledgment. (11c)

KING—The relatives of the late Olive King, 77 Mungret Street, wish to return sincere thanks to all those who sympathised with them in their recent bereavement; to those who sent Mass cards, flowers, telegrams and letters of sympathy, and to those who called personally and attended the Mass and funeral. Trusting this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment. (11c)

McMAHON—The family of the late Joseph McMahon, 2, St. Joseph's Terrace, Limerick, wish to return sincere thanks to all those who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; to those who sent Mass cards, telegrams and letters of sympathy, and to those who called personally or attended the funeral. (11p)

O'CONNELL—The family and relatives of the late Patrick O'Connell, 12, Lower Hartstonge St., Limerick, wish to return sincere thanks to all who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; to those who sent Mass cards, letters, telegrams and attended the funeral. Trusting this will be accepted by all in grateful acknowledgment. (11p)
