DEATH OF BOARDED-OUT CHILD

A verdict in accordance with the medical evidence was returned at the resumed inquest, at Loughill, into the death of John McGrath, five months' old boarded-out child, who died on 23rd January at the home of Mrs. Helena O'Connor, South Cappagh, Loughill.

Sergt. Mullaney, Foynes, said that when he visited Mrs. O'Con-nor's house, on 23rd January, he found the dead body of the child, which he had removed to Loughill next day for a post-mortem examination. Since the inquest was adjourned in January, Mrs. O'Connor had been sentenced to three months' imprisonment, without hard labour, when convicted under the Childrens' Act, 1908, of wilful neglect of the child in such a manner as to cause it unnecessary suffering.

Deputy Coroner, R. G. Cussen, solr., said that at the opening of the inquest, Dr. Nolan gave evidence that the organs of the child were perfect but there was marked absence of body fat. Death, in Dr.
Nolan's opinion, was due to emaciation caused by insufficient food.
In view of the fact that the criminal proceedings had been disposed of in the District Court, he (the Coroner) recommended that a verdict be returned in accordance with the medical evidence.

The Jury agreed to adopt this course and the verdict was returned accordingly.

Supt. McKenna represented the authorities.
