days of slavery are gone and with their passing Irish genius is making itself manifest. Today Irish art and artists are coming to the fore, but if the revival is to be as rapid as we would wish the people as a whole must give the stimulus needed—enthusiastic encouragement and support.

DIED IN NEW YORK

The death has occurred of Sister Rose Agnes (Anastasia Mullins) of the Holy Union of the Sacred Heart, St. Helena's Convent, New York. The late Sister Rose was daughter of the late William and

RECEPTION OF CO. LIMERICK LADY

The reception took place recently in the South Presentation Convent, Cork, of Miss Maureen Condon (in religion Sr. M. Therese), second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. T.
Condon, Rapala, Kilfinane. The ceremony was performed by the Very Rev. Canon Fitzgerald, P.P., South Parish, Cork. Amongst other clergy present were:—Rev. R.
O'Sullivan, C.C., St. Michael's, Limerick and Very Rev. M.
O'Donoghue, Prior, St. Mary's, Cork. Sr. Therese has another sister a nun in the same convent.
Their many friends wish them many years of health and happiness to pursue their sacred calling.
