Read how this sensible couple got rid of their aches and pains. Here are extracts from Mrs. H.H.'s letter: "After suffering three months with muscular rheumatism a friend of mine told me to take Fynnon Salt. I did, and believe me I have no more pain and it is a pleasure to go to bed and know you can sleep in comfort and you get up in the morning feeling fine and feel like doing the day's work. My husband is a coalminer and his work is on his knees or laid full out. This position causes a lot of pain. He took a chance with Fynnon—and what a relief it was. He says Fynnon Salt is great and he would not be without it... The old saying is 'How do you know the pudding is not sweet if you have not tasted it?'" —(Signed) W.W.H.

...OR WAS I DREAMING?
Me. Sonny, that was no dream! Last night your nose was stuffy, your throat sore, and you were coughing. Then Mummy rubbed 'Vick' on your throat, chest and back.

These healing vapours from the 'Vick' cleared your nose, soothed your throat, and eased your cough. And...

Like a poosie, 'Vick' warmed away the tightness and pain in your throat and chest. While you slept in comfort, 'Vick' kept on relieving all those miseries. No wonder you feel so chirpy this morning, young man!

BEATH OF MRS. B. MORGAN
Very deep sympathy will be extended to Sgt. M. Morgan, one of the most popular members of the Gardai in Limerick, on the death of his wife, Mrs. Bridget Morgan, which took place on Tuesday last at her home, Shannon Tee, T.C.B. The deceased lady, a member of a well-known Corofin family, was held in very high esteem and her demise has come as a profound shock to a large circle of friends. The sympathy of the general public extended to Sgt. Morgan and many children in their irreparable loss.

The funeral from St. Michael's Church, on Thursday, to Mount St. Lawrence cemetery was very largely attended, mourners having come from far and near to pay their last tribute of respect to a lady, who, throughout her life, rendered many services in the noble cause of charity.

The chief mourners were: M. Morgan (husband); John, Michael, Colum, Clare and Maureen (children); Tim, John and Thomas Fitzpatrick (brothers); Mrs. Mary Kelly; Mrs. Susan Pine; Mrs. Catherine McGee; Mrs. Nora Brooks; Mrs. Eily Conroy and Mrs. Anne McCay (sisters); John Morgan, Willibrook; Padraic Morgan; Ed. Conroy; Listowel; John Kelly; Corofin; Patrick Pine; Ruán; W. Illeach; Mrs. Corry, do.; Mrs. M. Fitzpatrick; Castlemore; Mrs. D. Fitzpatrick; Corofin; Mrs. B. Morgan, Willibrook (sisters-in-law); Telegrams of sympathy and Mass Cards were received from a host of friends.

MR. JOHN MINIHAN, LISNAGRY.

The death took place on September 7th, in England, of Mr. John Minihan, third son of Mr. and Mrs. Minihan, Ardyarna, Lisnagry, after a brief illness.

Deceased was a man of unimpeachable honour and integrity, loved with deep religious fervour. He was an outstanding example of the best and noblest traditions for which our Irish manhood have ever been noted. Of an equable temperament and genial disposition, he was a lovable companion, and was held in the greatest respect and admiration by all who knew him while being intimately acquainted with him will long remember his fine sincerity and sterling qualities.

His unexpected death at such an early age occasioned deepest regret in his native parish and acknowledgment Cards, ready to the Lissagary.

RUGBY NOTES

(By N.M.)

Prospects For 1945/46.
Now that the great World War is over prospects for the coming season look far brighter than they have for the last six years. The advent of internationals and inter-provincial trial games between the four provinces will add that necessary fillip into the game which has been missing so long. In the near future I hope to publish the official list.

Local Games.
Due to our old bogey "traveling facilities" the Senior League will again be played on the sectional system with the winners of the Northern area fighting out the section with the winners of the Southern section. The games officially opened in Limerick on Saturday, October 6th, with the meeting of the Army, XV, and Garryowen, and from that on will be seen from the under-mentioned lists, clubs will have a busy time.

The Junior League (Transfield Cup) will be played on the knockout system this season, due to the lack of playing grounds and the large number of teams participating. Garryowen (Limerick) employees have entered for all junior competitions, and with such a large following will be a force to reckoned with.

The Army boys, due to the demobilization of many of their prominent players, will not enter a second fifteen, and are confining their activities to senior ranks.

Club to Club Secretaries.

Will club secretaries please let me have the list of their officials as soon as convenient. Mostly all clubs have now held their annual meetings. Garryowen held theirs this evening at Crusade Hotel. Many players will don their toggs over the weekend in practice games.

Late Mr. A. O'Brien.

During the close season we recorded the death of Mr. A. O'Brien, the late "Gas" was all his life connected with the game in one way or another, and at the time of his unexpected death was Young amateur's representative on the All-Ireland Union Committee. An active well-known figure who performed a big service to the game was the veteran Mick Kelly of Garryowen through the death of his wife. The deceased lady was a tireless worker in the club's ladies committee. The tragic death of young J. Smyth, who played on Garryowen's under twenty team in the City Cup competition towards the end of last season, deprived the club of a very promising player.
