N.C.O.'S BODY IN RIVER

At about eight o'clock this morning the body of Corporal Thomas Minihan, who was stationed at Sarsfield Barracks, was found in the Shannon near the County Courthouse.

Corporal Minihan, who was aged about twenty-three, was a native of Croom. He belonged to the 18th Field Battery, 7th Field Artillery Regiment.

A post mortem examination is being held this evening.

DEATH OF MITCHELSTOWN LADY

The funeral took place on Monday of Mrs. Margaret Worriss, Knockagarry, Mitchelstown, after Solemn Requiem High Mass, her son being the celebrant. The removal of the remains to the local cemetery was witnessed by a remarkably large concourse of the general public. The deceased lady was very much respected in the district and in the town of Mitchelstown, where she had many friends. Much sympathy is felt for her husband and her highly respected family.

UNANIMOUS ELECTION

Rev. J. J. Dolan, P.P., Kilfinane, was unanimously elected Chairman of the local Old Age Pensions Committee at its last meeting. There were also present—Messrs. M. J. Leahy, M.P.S.I.; M. Riordan, J. Winter, D. Clancy and W. Hanley. Two cases were dealt with.

LATE COUNT McCORMACK.

"Twentieth Century Fox's 'Wings Of The Morning' will be re-issued on October 1st." This welcome announcement from London was received exclusively last evening by "E.C.," our Film Correspondent. This technicolour film was made about eight years ago, and starred Henry Fonda, Annabelle and Leslie Banks. The late John Count McCormack appears in the film as a guest artiste, and sings a number of charming songs. The playdate for Limerick will be fixed within the next few weeks.

MEDICAL APPOINTMENT.

Our Killaloe correspondent writes, Dr. T. O'Connor, Scariff, who has taken up a position in Ballinasloe, is a surgeon of high repute. While practising in Scariff he enjoyed great popularity, his kindly nature, generous disposition and attention to the poor and afflicted made his name a household word in the parish. Best wishes for their future welfare are extended to the Doctor, Mrs. O'Connor and family.

REMANDED ON BAIL
