

Donnell, and his
om Limerick to
and he is anxious
th relatives here.

YEARLING

urtney, Killaloe.
C. Courtney, re-
s for a yearling
dstock sales at
week (writes our
dent). Mr. Court-
n sportsman, was
ted by his many
ord price.

TORM.

t and district
an exceptionally
Friday night
espondent there).
was accompanied
ownpours, contin-
aturday night. No
rty has been re-

sence on holidays
ny, B.L., D.J., the
rts to be held in
nty area in Octo-Abbeyfeale (10th)
West (12th). Mr.
B.L., will adjudi-
e courts.

America nearer to Ireland, and was a great asset in strengthening the old-established friendship between the two countries. He could promise Trans-World Airlines a warm welcome and every possible facility in their operations here.

FLEW ON TO ENGLAND.

A survey 'plane belonging to American Export Airlines was expected to arrive at Rineanna at 5 o'clock this morning. This 'plane, however, flew direct to Hurn (England), but preparations are being made for her arrival in Rineanna this evening. The indications are that the Shannon Airport will be busy during the next few days, as more flights survey 'planes from the United States are being arranged.

DEATH OF POPULAR FARMER

A well-known and popular farmer, Mr. Tim Horgan, aged 65 years, of Kilconlea, Abbeyfeale,
died suddenly from cardiac failure while on a visit to Meengvee on Sunday. Deceased was an active member of the Committee of Feale Bridge Creamery and a prominent supporter of every national movement. His death is very much regretted.

branch since it v
years ago. His
O'Connell Street
deserved and in
be observed that
greatest pleasure
to the citizens as

* *

LEMONS A DRUG

The recently a
lemons is more o
the market. Shop
of them; they a
counters, shelves
conceivable place
likely to catch the
no purpose, for t
that lemons are without sugar. V
are not likely to
use a colloquialism
fact that the suga
increased as from
ber. There is th
lemons remain in
for so long?