

It will thus be seen that this is not merely a matter of facilities for joy-riding, as some short-sighted people may think. It is something that in one way or another touches almost every economic interest in the country. Our public bodies and representatives would do well, therefore, to make their wishes on this question known in a definite way so that those in authority would speedily realise that the demand for allowing these vehicles to run again is both widespread and insistent.

EMLY L.S.F. SOCIAL

A very enjoyable function, which marked the termination of the activities of Emly and Lattin Branch, L.S.F., was held at the Parochial Hall, Emly, (writes our Hospital and District correspondent). The function was greatly enjoyed by all present and musical items were rendered by Messrs. Patrick Clancy, Daniel O'Connell, D. Hennessy and Patrick Hayes.

Amongst those present were:— Dr. Laurence Hayes, Lisheen, Emly; Mr. J. C. Ryan, Group-Leader; Mr. Timothy O'Carroll, Assistant Group-Leader; Sergeant J. Coleman, Emly (representing the Gardai) and Mr. Charles Coyle, Tipperary (representing Tipperary District Staff).

Dr. Hayes (presiding) complimented both branches on the spirit in which they had carried out their duties during the long period of the emergency and said that Emly and Lattin could well be proud of the manner in which they supported the L.S.F.

Sergeant Coleman and Mr. Coyle also spoke and paid tribute to the splendid discipline which the branches had exhibited in their activities and meetings.

Mr. Ryan and Mr. O'Carroll suitably replied on behalf of the Group.

Catering for the function was in the hands of Miss A. M. Ryan, Emly House.

of friends in Co. Limerick. Mrs. Bertie Cussen and Mrs. Leonard, of Newcastle West, are cousins.

U.S. CHAPLAIN ON HOLIDAY

Rev. Father Vincent Hynes, of the U.S. Army, is spending a holiday in Ireland (writes a correspondent). He is staying with his uncle, Mr. Patrick Rochford, of Truagh. It is eight years since he last visited Ireland, so his many friends in this district were delighted to see him once again. He celebrated Mass at Truagh Church on Sunday, and gave the congregation a vivid picture of what he had seen during his three years as Chaplain to the U.S. Army.

Father Hynes described the long, hazardous journey from the beaches in Normandy on "D" day, and dealt with the end of the war in Germany. He also described the horrors of the concentration camps in Germany.

DEATH OF POSTMISTRESS

The death of Miss Julianne Lenihan, postmistress, Tarbert, is much regretted by Tarbert and Glin people (writes our Glin correspondent). Miss Lenihan was most civil and obliging to the public, and carried out her onerous duties with zeal for her employers and credit to herself. Her family and herself have had charge of Tarbert Post Office for over 60 years. Deepest sympathy is offered her sisters and brothers in their bereavement.
