

the Red Cross during my journey.

Yours sincerely,

Signed: _____

LIMERICK MAN'S DEATH IN CHICAGO

We regret to announce the death in Chicago of Mr. Charles McNamara, son of the late Michael and Frances McNamara, of Curraghgour and Thomond Bars, North Strand, Limerick, and nephew of Patrick Sheedy, Charles and Albert Stenson, late of the "Limerick Chronicle" Office, Limerick, and "Cork Examiner," Cork. The deceased passed away on the 27th September, 1945. He was a parishioner of the Holy Name Church, Chicago, in which he took a keen interest. His life was devoted to works of charity and good deeds, having special interest in one of the churches of his native Limerick. To his sister, Mrs. Myra O'Farrell, and relatives of Castleview Avenue, we wish to tender our deepest sympathy.

A DAVIS NIGHT AT ENNIS

The Davis Centenary was marked in Ennis by an Irish-Ireland concert (organised under the auspices of the Ennis Urban Council) at which Miss Rita Lynch and Mr. Denis Cox were the principal artistes. They were supported by artistes from Limerick and Clare, but the highlight of the evening was an address on Davis by Rev. D. Kelly, C.C., Ennis, Secretary to Most Rev. Dr. Fogarty, Bishop of Killaloe. It was sincere, eloquent and inspiring and was loudly acclaimed by the interested audience. Mr. P. J. McGarry, who was M.C., and Senator T. V. Honan, thanked both audience and artistes for their co-operation in making the concert a success.

THE RELIGIOUS LIFE

Miss Loretta Solon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solon, Whitegate, has entered the Convent of the Missionary Sisters, Ferbane, Offaly (writes our Killaloe correspondent). She is the second daughter of the family to have entered the religious life within the last year or so. The two young sisters take with them the best wishes of the people of Whitegate and district in their spiritual career.

Fionan Mac Coluim, Inspector in the Department of Technical Education, who has worked unceasingly to collect in Ireland and Scotland those beautiful airs and organise branches of Claisceadal Cois Life, Cois Laoi agus Cois Sionnaine.

WAS ON IRISH DELEGATES' BODYGUARD

Corporal J. Casey, American Army, is spending a holiday with his uncle, Mr. J. Ryan (Bishop), Clonyconry, Broadford (writes our Killaloe correspondent). He last visited Ireland in 1920, being then only 9 years of age. Some years after returning to America he joined the Chicago police force, and was a member of the bodyguard accredited to Sean T. O'Kelly and Sean Moylan when they last visited America. The corporal is a fine type of manhood, modest, unassuming and very popular in Broadford.

DIED IN AUSTRALIA

The death in Australia of Mr. John Lynch, eldest son of the late Mr. John Lynch, The Mall, Glin, has just taken place (writes our Glin correspondent). Deceased was a prominent I.R.A. man who emigrated with his family to Australia immediately after the Civil War. Deepest sympathy is offered his family.

VOTES OF SYMPATHY

At the meeting of the City Council last night, sympathy was voted to the clergy of the Archdiocese of Armagh on the death of Cardinal MacRory, on the proposition of the Mayor (Ald. M. Hartney); to the widow and family of the late Professor Eoin MacNeill, on the motion of Ald. Reidy, T.D.; and to Mrs. T. A. Murphy (Cruise's Hotel), on the death of her mother, on the motion of Mr. Russell.

LIMERICK VOCATIONAL OFFICERS.

At a recent meeting of the Limerick City Branch of the Vocational Education Officers' Organisation, a resolution was passed in support of the demand for the establishment in Limerick of a Constituent College of the National University.