

telephonic comth the Department to having coal for made available. He that suggestion as coal had come too e said, he had got rom different people
ry had closed.
get coal why not ar representative

giving me the coal Government."
general conversa-
er from whom you long as you get it?"
Government says I nd other people say do business in that feel that you are ce to your staff by

"I have been comdown. When I
ose on two former t the Government.
our staff? You told occasion that you al staff. Is that so?
a most loyal staff. s only two hands

ending them adrift, to continue losing not got a penny out or the past seven

n for closing down
have not got coal ment—not because oss?

have not got coal.
ay that you have coal from other accept that offer?

question of coal,
ed to close down?
ut notices stating inery stopped here stopped. Nobody representatives of Commerce. T.Ds.

Ds. call on you and would place your Department of Inmerce?

but not before my sition—coal or no re-open?—Yes; not your intentions?

ther than what I got plenty of in-place, including inema combine. I active offer to go n a laundry there not re-open the ? No, not as a the evacuation of 12,000 women and children from mid-Java.

There were no disturbances in Cairo during the night. Police continue to patrol the street, and foreign establishments are being given special protection.

Arab willingness to agree to additional immigration of Jews into Palestine over and above the figure stipulated in the British White Paper was reiterated in Jerusalem yesterday by Nusa Alam, secretary to the Arab Offices and Palestine delegate to the Pan-Arab League.
The Arabs, however, stipulated that the entire problem be studied by an impartial United Nations' organisation to ascertain whether the nation's economy could absorb additional immigrants.

DEATH OF MR. JOSEPH A. LAWLER

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Joseph A. Lawler, which took place to-day at his residence, O'Connell Avenue, Limerick.

The late Mr. Lawler was a well known citizen, and a gentleman who took a lively interest in social and philanthropic activities. He was Hon. Secretary of the Limerick Golf Club, and in many other ways helped sport generally.

He was brother of the late Mr.
Thomas S. Lawler, a former High Sheriff of the city. Very deep sympathy will be extended to the widow, family and other relatives in their sad bereavement.

The remains will be removed from Mount Vincent View, O'Connell Avenue, this evening at 7 o'clock to St. Michael's Church, whence the funeral will take place to-morrow after Requiem Mass at 10 o'clock.

REDEMPTORIST RECTOR BEREAVED

The death has occurred of Miss Bridget McDonnell, for several years a popular member of the clerical staff of Tipperary Post Office. Her brother, Very Rev.
John McDonnell, is Rector of the Redemptorist Order in Limerick.
The remains were removed by road on Saturday afternoon from Tipperary for interment in the family burial place, Baltinglass, Co. Wicklow. Mr. J. J. Armstrong, Postmaster, and members of the Tipperary Postal Staff marched behind the bier leaving Tipperary.

OLD LIMERICK DATE STONES

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.")

Dear Sir — In Wednesday's
"Leader" reference was made to Motorists in Limerick are ready for "D-Day." There a steady stream of owner registration departments Town Hall and County offices with the result that have had to work at high But the registration office not the only people who in consequence of the ret motor car to the road. L companies are doing a trade and, by the way, ag not obliged to solicit this lar class of business. The insurance offices are being less besieged by motorists anxious to procure a "c note" with the minimum d

* * *

CITY BUS SERVICE.

The announcement that bus service will be extende p.m. on and after 26th in given unalloyed joy to the But their joy and pleasure be full if they were assur full pre-war Sunday service be restored at the same tim zens generally are greatly veniened by the curtailed service, especially those wh occasion to visit friends in tal. It is to be hoped, the that C.I.E. will give us ba full pre-war service for the days of the week.

* * *

NOT SETTLED.

Contrary to general expect the strike at the wire an factory, Dock Road, was no up during the week-end. The of the trouble—a question o motion—should not presen great difficulty in arriving settlement and the public little perplexed that a should be closed down for weeks over an issue of this Directors of the company representatives of the emp were in conference on Frida noon, when the prospects satisfactory settlement we ceedingly bright. Indeed,