at the censor's office, comes with Ann Savage and the star with Irish relations—J. Carrol Naish.
Thursday's "Sherlock Holmes and the Secret Weapon" is a first run attraction. This is the very latest of the series and the players include Basil Rathbone, Nigel Bruce and Karaan Verne (Mrs. Peter Lorre).
COLISEUM—Orson Welles has the leading role in his own production, "Journey Into Fear," due here on Monday. An air of mystery surrounds every moment of this exceptionally well made spy drama.
Joseph Cotten, Dolores Del Rio and Ruth Warrick head the supporting cast, which includes Robert Moss as the man with the glasses.
Wednesday's "Dangerous Blondes" is a comedy-drama which is claimed to be great entertainment. Evelyn Keyes is the heroine of the plot, with Allyn Joslyn and Edmund Lowe contributing excellent support.
Friday's "Burmuda Mystery" is one of the season's slickest murder mysteries. Preston Foster, Ann Rutherford and Charles Butterworth star.

DIED IN AMERICA

His numerous friends throughout the district (writes our Hospital correspondent) regret to learn of the death, which occurred in America, of Mr. Michael Joseph Cleary, second eldest son of the late Doctor Michael Cleary, Go-toon, Hospital. Deceased, who comes of a well-known and highly-respected County Limerick family, was brother of Dr. John P. Cleary, Coroner for East Limerick, Gotoon House, Hospital, and of Miss Teresa M. Cleary, Medical Hall, Hospital. Prior to his departure for America, he was very well-known over a wide area and was extremely popular.
