

ch sanction
t delay.
ter said:—
ner increase
considered
same ques-
ic servants,
a decision

ARGET "

common cry
in German
ation camps.
nks of the
nce a huge
where food
le by the
Ten women
the wayside
ng men fell
e infant lay
r's breast.
ed, hoped,
d despaired.
ug day by
ote districts
and all that spered and
No war
ed for the
, but never
lack famine
d Ireland's
ent.

TEALAI GH.

and with the prayers of his friends and the mournful sound of the Last Post we leave him to seek in the world beyond the grave that peace and contentment which he so assiduously strove to secure for others during life.

May the sod rest lightly on him,
and may his pure and noble soul rest in peace.

P. M.

DEATH.

MULCAHY (Limerick)—November 18th, 1945, at her residence, Newcastle View House, Garryowen, Limerick, Margaret, daughter of William Mulcahy, and sister of Rev.
Father Mulcahy, S.M.A., Ondo, Nigeria, to the inexpressible grief of her parents, brothers and sisters.
R.I.P. Funeral from St. John's Cathedral, after 10.30 a.m. Mass, on Tuesday, to Mount St. Lawrence
Cemetery. (19p)

VOTE OF SYMPATHY.

Wanderers A.F.O.—At a committee meeting held on 15th November, 1945, by the above Club, a vote of deepest sympathy was passed to Patrick and Timothy Healy on the death of their mother.
—T. McNamara, Hon. Sec.

before very lo
suggestion ha
an American
subject, Mr. C
an air-line
three cents
feasible on
This writer h
of catering al
for millionair
air travel co
within the p
of millions by
mission huge
calls econ
cruising at f
miles per hou
say, fifty pass
an article or
the Saturday
New York h
deal of enligh
tion, and the
he cites seem telling case i
he advocates