

LATE MR. W. F. LEE

Tribute From Reader In England

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.") Sir: It was with feelings of great regret that I read in the Limerick Leader, dated 5th November, of the passing of that great man, Mr. W. F. Lee.

Many years ago when I was employed in the Counting House of Messrs. W. Todd and Co., I was introduced to the Counting House by Mr. Lee, and as I was the letter, the name of many of the famous first team came to my mind. Con. Fitzmaurice, Larry Roche, Denis Barane, Tommy Kelly, Dave Ryan and many others.

At the time there was another man who was very popular, but in what capacity I cannot now remember. Willie Lee, of the County Council, I did not know then.

When the late Mr. Lee died, I was in the post office and I was in the habit of sending him letters, which were sent to me by the Limerick Leader.

"THOMOND" OF THE "LIMERICK LEADER"

It matters not that East or West, successful in Ireland's best, "Limerick's" first with Limerick's best.

So "Thomond" thanks, sincerely, for the gift of the "Limerick Leader" and its "Thomond" of the Limerick Leader.

"Our guide, philosopher and friend" has written to the end: "I have written to you, Limerick Leader."

Although Mr. Lee was not known to me personally, he always welcomed my personal contributions to "Thomond's" column, and added his note of appreciation to each one.

Communications passed between us which continued to the outbreak of war, when the hand of the censor fell heavily on correspondence with Ireland.

It was a great pleasure for me, as a Rathkalee man, to know that he had a very warm corner in his heart for the "Old Rathkalee Town" and especially for those sterling Gaelic sportsmen, Mr. Michael Madigan (Imperial Hotel), who constantly referred to the great hospitality he received from the local Gaelic on his periodic visits to the town.

To you, my dear, as a conscientious colleague, to the Athlete Club of which he was so proud to be the Limerick Gaelic both at home and overseas and to his sorrowing relatives, may I offer sincere, if belated, sympathy on the passing of William F. Lee, M.P., who died in 1916-1923.

GEORGE VAUGHAN, Stanley House, Wellington Road, Bitterne Park, Southampton.

A NOTABLE MUNSTER GAEL Under the above heading the following appears in the "Carraig News" column of "The Waterford Star": All over Munster there is much regret among supporters of Gaelic games at the death of Mr. W. F. Lee, ex-N.E. Athlete, County Limerick.

For many years past, he contributed a weekly G.A.A. column to the "Limerick Leader," under the pen-name of "Thomond." These notes were read by every Gael in County Limerick. Mr. Lee's school at Athone was the cradle of the famous hurling team of that name. All his life Mr. Lee has been an ardent Irish Nationalist.

He took a prominent part in 1916-1923 activities. He was a fine Irish scholar and historian. Former pupils of his occupy good posts all over the world, and many are priests at home and abroad.

The late Mr. Lee was an intimate friend of Mr. Peter Shanahan, Park View, Carrick-on-Suir, whose late mother was a neighbour of Mr. Lee.

TRIBUTE FROM VOCATIONAL COMMITTEE. At the meeting of Limerick County Vocational Committee on Tuesday last, Mr. Sean Hartney, Chairman, who presided, said that he desired to propose a vote of sympathy with the widow and relatives of the late Mr. W. F. Lee, Castleconnell, a former member of the Committee. Mr. Lee was, he said, a most valued member of the Committee, but apart from his activities in the regard to the done valuable work on behalf of Irish-Ireland.

The vote was declared passed unanimously and the members, as a mark of respect, observed one minute's silence.

AT 70 HE STILL ENJOYS HIS FOOD SINCE RENNIES RELIEVED HIS GASTRIC STOMACH.

Even at three-score years and ten, it is not too late to do something about indigestion if you choose the right remedy. That was the experience of Mr. Baker, whose health improved when he was once more able to digest his food. Read his letter:

"I am a retired ship's steward and cook, and since giving up going to sea, after 25 years, I suffered after meals with gastric stomach. About twelve months ago I bought a packet of Rennie's and I took it after meals, and after a few days I bought some more and they continued to do me good and my health improved. I enjoy my food, but I always take two Rennie's after meals. I am 70 at the end of this month." H. L. Baker, in three ways. They contain antacids which neutralise acidity, absorbents which reduce stomach gas, and digestive ferments which actively aid digestion. Rennie's become active at once, because they reach the stomach full strength, not weakened with water. All chemists sell Rennie's: 7d. and 2/- box.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Oil—and you'll save at least the weight of your oil and sugar. The liver should give you one ounce of bile daily. If it does not, you are feeling poorly, your food doesn't digest, it is slow in the bowels. You have no energy. You get constipated. Your system is poisoned and you feel sick, and the world looks grey.

Liver pills are the best way to move things along. Get the best. It takes three good old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely.

Carter's Little Liver Pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Oil—and you'll save at least the weight of your oil and sugar. The liver should give you one ounce of bile daily. If it does not, you are feeling poorly, your food doesn't digest, it is slow in the bowels. You have no energy. You get constipated. Your system is poisoned and you feel sick, and the world looks grey.

Liver pills are the best way to move things along. Get the best. It takes three good old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely.

Carter's Little Liver Pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Oil—and you'll save at least the weight of your oil and sugar. The liver should give you one ounce of bile daily. If it does not, you are feeling poorly, your food doesn't digest, it is slow in the bowels. You have no energy. You get constipated. Your system is poisoned and you feel sick, and the world looks grey.

Liver pills are the best way to move things along. Get the best. It takes three good old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely.

Carter's Little Liver Pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

Without Oil—and you'll save at least the weight of your oil and sugar. The liver should give you one ounce of bile daily. If it does not, you are feeling poorly, your food doesn't digest, it is slow in the bowels. You have no energy. You get constipated. Your system is poisoned and you feel sick, and the world looks grey.

Liver pills are the best way to move things along. Get the best. It takes three good old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely.

Carter's Little Liver Pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills.

RIVAL BODIES

In Charge Of Irish Athletics

(To the Editor, "Limerick Leader.") Sir: My attention has been directed to a statement issued by Mr. Cullen, when President of the N.A.A. and C.A.A. and published in your issue of the 3rd instant. As it contains very serious allegations against the members of the N.A.A.A.E. I would be glad if you would give the following statement equal prominence.

Mr. Cullen has been a member of the N.A.A.A. only since 1934, when he joined it with the C.R.E. which had been the internationally recognised association for the control of cycling in the 26 Counties for the previous few years. His statements may, therefore, be due to his lack of knowledge of the facts and not to a desire to mislead your readers.

The N.A.A.A. was formed in 1922 by an amalgamation of the several organisations controlling athletics and cycling in the country at that time, and was admitted to membership of the I.A.A.F. on the 1st of January, 1924.

Even before the latter year, however, a group of athletes and cyclists in Northern Ireland had formed the N.A.A.A. and formed an association of their own. This association made a request for recognition to the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them. All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

All efforts in this direction were, however, unsuccessful and in 1929 the International Cyclists' Union ruled in favour of the N.A.A.A. and the N.A.A.A. was recognised by the English A.A.A. and the latter in turn applied to the N.A.A.A. to effect a settlement with them.

GAELIC NOTES

(By "CRAOBH RUADH") City Board Affairs.

Nominations and motions for the Annual Convention were received at a meeting of the City Board held at the Mechanics Institute on Wednesday night, Mr. Seamus O'Connell presiding. Nominations were as follows:

For Chairman—Seamus O'Connell (unopposed); Vice-Chairman—P. O'Shaughnessy (unopposed); Secretary—P. Kelly (unopposed).

Secretary M. O'Connell (Naomh Padraig), outgoing; Liam O'Naughton (Cloughaun), outgoing; P. O'Shaughnessy (Shanrock), outgoing; P. O'Shaughnessy (Shanrock), outgoing; P. O'Shaughnessy (Shanrock), outgoing.

Awarded Game. The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

The Gleeson Cup junior football final, which was abandoned on Sunday 20th minutes before full time, with the teams on level scores, was rescheduled for the 21st.

RUGBY NOTES

(By N.M.) Unlucky Leinster.

The meeting of the New Zealand touring side and Leinster at Lansdowne Road on Saturday last provided one of the best, if not one of the most thrilling, encounters witnessed there for a long number of years. The crowd of 10,000 who were privileged to see the game, was away with the unanimous opinion that the plucky Leinster XV, must be considered a most unlucky side not to have come out on top. Phydug and beating this crack side away from home, was a feat of their own game, particularly in the last fifteen minutes, gave the crowd, estimated at 20,000, full value for their money.

This, the first representative fixture, will do a good deal for the sport and, as a spectator stated: "It only now remains the ardent hope of the men on the pitch that an all-round improvement in the game will be the outcome."

The first big test for the Kiwis takes place to-morrow, when they meet an English fifteen at Twickenham, London.

Munster v. Ulster. To-morrow (Saturday) at Ravenhill, Belfast, our representatives meet their first inter-provincial test when they meet Ulster. Many are asking the question, and I may say answering it, "Consensus of opinion is that Ulster's great victory against the Kiwis has this match already in the bag for them, but let us not forget that our eyes have more than often confounded the critics, and may do so to-morrow."

No changes have been announced, while reports to hand state that our XV are fighting fit. The Limerick contingent on the team, left to-day for Dublin, where they spend the night, and will entrain early to-morrow for the North. A retrospect of the team appeared in last week's notes.

If they happen to defeat Ulster, their meeting against Leinster, at Thomond Park on Saturday, December 8th, will be looked forward to with keen interest.

Speaking of this game reminds me of the fact that the Stand at Thomond Park will be reserved, and those interested will, if they want choice seats, obtain their tickets as soon as possible. Same will be on sale at Messrs. Nestor & Sons' store, O'Connell Street, and at the Limerick Sports, William Street, as and from Monday next, November 26th.

The Final Irish Trial Game. If Cork was disappointed that the proposed fixture, Munster v. New Zealand, did not materialise, they are well recompensed now that the Rugby Union has selected the Southern Capital for the Final Irish Trial game, which takes place on January 12th.

This is a step in the right direction. Now that the Union has broken away from tradition, who knows but that at some later date Thomond Park will be the venue for a like fixture, and why not? Such games would do incalculable