DEATH.

MARTIN (Limerick)—December 21st, 1945, at her residence, 5 Shannon Terrace, S.C.R., Rose, relict of the late Patrick Martin (formerly of Newry, Co. Down), to the inexorable grief of her sorrowing family and relatives. Removal of remains this (Friday) evening to St. Michael's Church at 8 o'clock. Requiem Mass on Sunday, December 23rd, at 9 o'clock. Funeral to Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery at 1.30 o'clock same day.

IN MEMORIAM.

BARRY (Sixteenth Anniversary) Cherished memories of John (Jack), who was accidentally killed at Knocklong Station, Christmas Day, December 25th, 1929. Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on his soul. Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, intercede for him. St. Dominic, pray for him. Novena of Masses offered.

Loving thoughts, true and tender,
 Just to show that I remember,
 It's only short but means a lot,
 To say "Dear Jack, I have not forgot."
 Some may forget the love that once they gave,
 But our love follows you, Jack,
 far beyond the grave;
 No one to visit you, no one to care,
 No one but us to know you are there.
 But your loving face will always remain
 A part of the missing link in the family chain.
 Ever remembered by sister,
 Bridgid, and family.

BRADSHAW (Second Anniversary) In fond and loving memory of James Bradshaw (R.I.P.), 3 Rutland Street, Limerick, who died on the 18th of December, 1943. On
