
Sad Drowning

Young Child's Death

A very sad drowning fatality took place about six o'clock on Saturday evening in the vicinity of Nolan's Cottages, Newgate, opposite Carraghoun Falls, when a child named Stephen Urean, aged between two and three years, who resided with his parents at 13 Nolan's Cottages, slipped into the river and was drowned. His little playmates were unable to render assistance, the fatality taking place in two or three feet of water. On hearing the commotion of the children a passer-by rushed to the scene, but found he was too late to save the child's life.

The deepest sympathy is felt with the parents in their very sad bereavement.
