

Limerickman's Death

The death occurred suddenly in Limerick of Mr Paul McAuliffe, a native of Bruff, co Limerick. A member of an old Bruff family, he was for many years employed in Messrs Daly's bakery, Limerick. Following Requiem Mass in St Michael's Church, Limerick, the funeral took place to Athlacca (Kilmallock) burial ground, where there was a large and representative congregation. The chief mourners were:— Mrs Margaret McAuliffe (widow); Messrs Sean and Eamonn McAuliffe (sons); Messrs John, Edmond and Michael McAuliffe (brothers); Mrs Bridget Hogan, Mrs Mary Moloney and Mrs Fannie Fitzgerald (sisters). At a special meeting of the Bruff GAA Club sympathy was voted to the relatives of the deceased.
