

Irish Nurse Dies in England

---

Widespread regret has been occasioned throughout West Limerick by the news of the death of Miss Bridie Gilbourne, which occurred recently under tragic circumstances in England. Deceased young lady, who was a member of the nursing staff of Northwood Hospital, Middlesex, died from the effects of complications caused by having swallowed her dentures with some food; Deceased was daughter of Mrs Ellen Gilbourne and the late Thomas Gilbourne, Ballygalen, Kilmeedy.

---

---