

Co. Clare Sportsman

Death of Mr T. O'Brien, Miltown-Malbay

The death, which took place during the week end, of Mr Thomas T O'Brien, proprietor of the Central Hotel, Miltown-Malbay, is much regretted. Deceased was well known in racing circles. He was secretary of the Miltown-Malbay Races and made the fixture compare favourably with any run under the rules in Munster. His funeral was representative and large and included a big number of clergy and professional men from many parts of the country.
