
Died in Train

When travelling on the train from Goold's Cross to Thurles, Mrs Kate Hayes, 62, of Bridge View, Goold's Cross, had a seizure, and died before the train reached Thurles.

Dr Patrick Moloney, Thurles, certified that death was due to heart failure. The deceased conducted a grocery and spirit business in Goold's Cross.