

Aged Farmer's Death

Mr Jeremiah Connors, of Clonshire, Adare, who has died reached the ripe old age of 86 years. An esteemed and successful member of the farming community, he was very popular with all classes, and his passing evoked wide sympathy. The funeral took place from Adare Church to Croagh Cemetery, where the interment took place in the presence of a very large and representative gathering.
