

Obituary

Limerick P.P.'s Death

Canon Foley Passes Away

The death took place on Saturday at the Parochial House, Dromcollogher, of Very Rev James Canon Foley, P.P., aged 82 years.

The late Canon Foley was ordained 55 years ago at Maynooth. He served as curate at Bandon, Kinsale and Blackrock, Cork, and on his recall to the Limerick Diocese was appointed curate at Knockaderry, and subsequently at Croom and Glin. For some time Canon Foley was in failing health. His ever kindly manner as well as his great priestly zeal endeared him to his parishioners, not alone at Dromcollogher but also in those other parts of the diocese where he had ministered, and his passing is deeply regretted by priest and people.
