

Teacher's Death In Limerick

The death occurred rather unexpectedly in Limerick on Saturday of Mr Robert Ernest Morley, N.E., principal teacher, St Michael's National School. Deceased, who was 29 years was son of Mr and the late Mrs Robt Morley, Clonakilty, co Cork. He came to Limerick four years ago where he achieved considerable distinction in teaching. His early death has come as a great shock to many friends.