

Death of Dean Adderley

Very Rev Robert Archibald Adderley, M.A., Listowel, who has died in a Tralee nursing home, was Dean of Ardfert and Aghadoe Diocese.

Born in Cork in 1870, he was ordained in Tuam Cathedral in 1901. Subsequently he was Precentor in Limerick for years. He was appointed Rector to Listowel in 1918, and was raised to the Deanery of Ardfert and Aghadoe about 1938. Having ministered as chaplain to the British Forces in World War I, he remained an honorary chaplain. He was later Chancellor of Limerick Cathedral.

The interment took place in St Mary's Cathedral, Limerick to day.
