Popular Citizen's Death

The death occurred on Monday after a protracted illness of Mr John O'Dwyer, Mount Pleasant Avenue, Limerick. The deceased was a deservedly popular citizen, and the deepest sympathy goes out to his widow and family in their very sad bereavement.

The late Mr O'Dwyer held a very responsible position in the firm of Messrs J McBirney and Co as chief accountant and when that concern was taken over by Roche's Stores, Ltd, he was retained in that important position, proving himself a very capable official who enjoyed the complete confidence of the firm. He was an ardent trade unionist, and one who was an early member of the Irish Union of Distributive Workers, and prior to inception of that body was a member of the old Drapers' Assistants' Association. Of a very gentle and unassuming disposition, the deceased was a most devout Catholic, being for a number of years a Prefect of the Arch Confraternity of the Holy Family attached to the Redemptorist Church.
