

ions.
 pionships pro-
 lts. St. John's
 fight for the
 football title,
 completing the
 ne Rovers up-
 and romped
 e victory after
 In contrast to
 enile competi-
 supported and
 rdid games in
 igue Rovers
 tles.
 and Maigue
 onours in the mpetitions or-
 y Board. St.
 rites for the
 rom the start
 eir confidence.
 ed a surprise
 g tournament,
 h they turned
 B.S. side, was
 cting contest
 reland Shic.d
 the football,
 em the high-
 somewhat in
 ock to see
 ex the New
 y after a
 which had
 mber of sides
 hit the head-
 nt when they
 aun team in e was not a
 e behind the
 nal tilt with
 n prominent
 pionship, but
 mination car-
 ty. Sarsfields
 ders of this
 e first time.
 ost ended, it
 finishing the
 e two princi-
 senior hurl-
 the Duggan
 ffered as a s made it a

March or early April.
 In every respect the current number of "Good Counsel" is well up to the high standard associated with that very attractive quarterly, and it is certainly great value for 3d., the price at which it is sold.

LATE MRS. E. M. POWER, RATHCANNON

Mrs. E. M. Power, of Rathcannon, Athlacca, who died recently, was wife of Mr. William F. Power, of Rathcannon, an extensive dairy and stock breeding farmer, who is well known as a breeder of bloodstock, his horses including Embargo and Ethel H. Daughter of the late Dr. Hartigan, of Croom, the late Mrs. Power was a member of a well-known and highly esteemed Co. Limerick family, connected for generations with the sporting, racing, social and farming life of the county. She was sister of the late Mr. Martin Hartigan, the well-known English trainer, and mother of Mr. P. J. Power, well-known in racing circles in Munster. She was also mother of the late Capt. John J. Power, of the 2nd Wiltshire Regiment, who was killed in action in the 1939 war with the British forces at the Anzio Beach-head in Italy, and was sister-in-law of Mr. P. J. Power, Ballyhaught, Kilmallock, National Health Insurance Inspector. She was a lady of many outstanding qualities and was very popular with all classes, and the attendance at her interment, which took place at Athlacca, was the largest and most representative seen in Athlacca for many years, all classes of the public being represented.

ABBEYFEALE MARKETS.
 (30th December.)

Turkeys, 2/- per lb.; geese, 1/1; chickens, 1/7; hens, 1/-; butter, 2/2 per lb.; eggs, 3/2 per doz.; pigeons, 1/6 each; rabbits, 2/6; turf, 40/- per ton; potatoes, 1/- to 1/4 per stone.

and McCutcheon (New Hall), Mrs. Sexton ably gave no quarter a most gallant and deto to the last stroke, opponents work very h point.

By contrast with above games, the M was a rather quiet affair and de Lacy proved to the younger pair, Small. This does not the winners had it a way by any means. Small served some very and in technique and come a long way in They deserve great cre ing the finals. More v of them in the future

The usual presentat ended a splendid even tainment. It was very see two of these goin teams. They are to be ted, not alone for wi but for their splendid enthusiasm in travelling tances at great incor compete in these chan

Limerick and District Positions After Round

Division 1 (Section A)- (1), 10; P.Y.M.A., 10; M ture Hall, 8; Roscrea, 4
 —Methodist (1), 6; Ardr 5; Nenagh Abbey 5 (2
 Optimists (1) withdraw Division 2 (Section
 terian, 9; Sarsfield, 9; K Wanderers (II), 6. S
 Ennis, 12; Kilkee, 8; Ha
 7; Ennistymon, 6.
 Division 3—Optimists
 Ardnacrusha (III), 9; A (III), 8; Wanderers
 Methodist (II), 5.
 January, 1947.—Comin
 Thursday, 2nd, Wande
 Ardnacrusha (III).
 Saturday, 4th, Ardha
 v. Methodists (II).