

tremendously thrill- details of which I to divulge in this because the suc- film lies in the fact u know about the f this story the make it. George Marshall. Peter ssen (who was in eeks ago) and Sid- (of "The Mask of e) are the leading n excellent show. re-goers will enjoy

* * * TRAL—"The Bar- pole Street." the starring Norma es Laughton and has been re-issued ailed as one of the ions of a famous to be recorded in here on Monday, nt production, bril- d, written, acted, med. Norma and e than present a love story; they e invalided Eliza- d the poet Robert And as the grim, father whose dia- e motivates the Laughton gives one ormances. Here is e to see a screen masterpieces brings 's "Mrs. Miniver," ce to insistent de- picturegoers, the ve decided to run e days. Telling the oical middle class and their heroism and the Battle of one of those rare ements that strikes millions. Co. Down on is starred with Richard Ney (now d newcomer Teresa eable performances ne May Whitty and

* * * low a magazine re- the law, gave the ronegely convicted of for selling deficient milk, and fines totalling £7 10s. were imposed. He became suspicious, hid behind a wall, and saw the defendant fill his two-gallon can from a pump and add the water to a churn of milk.

The defendant admitted the offence, and said that there were about ten gallons of milk in the churn. He denied that milk of which samples had previously been taken by the authorities had been interfered with by him.

He was sentenced to two months imprisonment with hard labour.

RATHKEALE LADY'S DEATH IN ENGLAND

Miss Nora Geaney, who died on December 29th at the Royal Infirmary Hospital, Bolton, England, where she was a member of the nursing staff, was the daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. Tim Geaney, Enniscouche, Rathkeale. Two of her sisters are in religion—Sister Patrick, of the Order of St. Joseph of Cluny, Mount Sackville, Dublin, who was home in Rathkeale recently after ten years missionary work in West Africa, and Sister Bernardine, of the same Order, who was in the Azore Islands for a number of years and is at present in Portugal. Nurse Geaney died after a brief illness. She was 28 years of age.

from authentic sources, have been filmed by Paramount and make a picture of breath-taking spectacle and speed. Ralph Morgan, Ellen Drew and Preston Foster star. The film will be shown on Monday and Tuesday.

It is difficult to describe in mere words the antics of Olsen and Johnson who are the stars of Wednesday's "Ghost Catchers."—It recounts their adventures in a haunted house with sliding doors, secret panels, corpses under furniture. In fact all the paraphernalia of a thriller—in a comedy. Gloria Jean, Lon Chaney and Andy Devine support.

Also on the programme is a very enjoyable Universal musical—"Slightly Terrific"—with dancer

Alone at my Christmas
I think of that lovin'
Of friends, which each thinner
As each sought the Land.

This Christmas I'm qu
And death makes me
For all whom I loved
And I am the last on

They went, one after
My fond loving pare
And also my sisters a
And now they sleep s

The church of Clou claimed them
To sleep there in per
And in my fond th
framed them.
Until my sad life wil

My future seems lone a Without those for wh
Who once made this lif
In days of the dear

They've all passed away
But as I sit here alone
I feel that they still wa
From where they can Throne.

To-day every home is fe
But mine, from which fled.
And here my sad hear
With longing to join

To sadness my mind i
By grief for the dead
But sometime plea
Heaven
I'll meet the loved one

I'm eager to go and m
And, when at the O
I'll know them at once them
Not altered but glori

I keep this fond hope
That at some glad tir
I'll go to the ones I ch
Who now cannot com

Last evening three bo
holly,
And asked if they'd room;