

strike are prepared to go to effect a settlement in order to restore that peace which is so much desired by all.

Then a new Conciliation Board could be set up with a new constitution, and proper terms of reference, and the convening of its meetings could be definitely arranged for the good of the city.

Yours respectfully,

"A WORKER."

will be subsequently dealt with by this Chamber.

NEW MEMBERS.

The annual sale of papers was then proceeded with, and the meeting terminated with the election of four new members:—Mr. E. P. Quinlan, 7, Quinlan Street; Mr. D. H. Woodhouse, 35, O'Connell St.; Mr. Kevin P. Barry, Manager, John Quin & Co., Ltd.; Mr. Joseph C. Duggan, 14, William Street.

tions.

Senator Madden agreed and said that the Committee should have been given an opportunity to discuss the matters to be dealt with at such a highly important conference.

The C.A.O. said that in the appointment of delegates to the conference the same procedure was followed as last year. In future he would, if at all possible, arrange for the holding of a special meeting before the conference was held.
