MR. P. O'DONNELL, KILGARRIF

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Patrick O'Donnell, Kilgarrif, Ballylanders, which occurred at his residence, on February, the 10th. Deceased was a grand old type of individual, whose kindness and benevolence was greatly experienced by the people among whom he dwelt, which inspired in them a deep rooted respect for him, that shall not perish. Sympathy is extended to the widow and family on the irreparable loss they have suffered, occasioned by the death of an exemplary husband and father.

Next evening the remains were removed to Glenbrohane Church, and the following day the interment took place at Ballylanders Cemetery. The large funeral cortege bore testimony to the regret felt by all.

The officiating clergy were:—Very Rev. G. O'Donnell, P.P., Knocklong; Very Rev. J. K. Dunne, P.P., Ballylanders; Rev. Fr. Kennedy, C.C., Knocklong; Rev. Fr. Ryan, C.C., Ballylanders; Rev. Fr. J. O'Dea, C.C., Glenroe, and Rev. Fr. Crowley, Ballylanders.

Mr. Michael O'Donnell, Fort Landerdale, Florida, who has travelled 44 out of the 48 American States, returned to the old homestead to be present at the end and obsequies in accordance with his father's wishes.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs. Margaret O'Donnell (widow); Mr. and John O'Donnell (sons); Mrs. James Howard, Mrs. David Condon, Mrs. John Cole (daughters); Mr. J. Howard, D. Condon, J. Cole (sons-in-law); Mrs. J. O'Donnell (daughter-in-law); Messrs Michael, Tom, John, Edmond, and Patrick McGuire (nephews); Mr. C. Upton, Miss M. Upton, Mrs. P. T. O'Hare, Michael Connery, Cork; Mr. J. Lonergan, Mrs. Lizzie Cloghessy, Mary Lonergan, Mr. and Mrs. Moran.

Senator Tadhg Crowley and Mr. Patrick McGuire, M.C.C., were also in attendance.

SHEEP KILLED BY DOGS

Wholesale destruction of sheep through being worried by dogs is causing grave concern to members of the farming community residing adjacent to Mitchelstown. Within a few weeks, in this area, a total of 24 sheep have been killed.
