

entertained, and Mrs. Dolan on their bedroom come to farming in New- themselves very have been the esages of fel- beautiful pre-require a strengthening of funds to enable them to carry on, and he would suggest a "45" drive for a beginning. Mr. M. Dolan suggested in addition that the G.A.A. Dramatic Class be re-organised with a view to providing social entertainments in aid. Both suggestions were agreed, and it was decided to hold the "45" drive on March 8th.

should give rise to some bate. The Railway Cup. The Munster and Leinster in the Railway Cup semi-finals, on Sunday, promise of a rousing tussle. In spite of defections and despite Munster had a convincing victory over Connaught, a further prize were needed, that Cork's the Railway All-Ireland was no fluke.

KEY IN URNS

imately what worth, and basis of this. Cow is the this country's is built, and he supply of dled, the pro- would be poor nsure the con- breeding stock edegree Short- le calves will hing qualities, will have the ich the Short- the ability to for the store nt—the Short- der the most conditions—but e must be fed attle. Further had from the thorn Breeders' H. Johnson,

OLD I.R.A. VETERAN DEAD

The passing away of Mr. Patrick O'Neill, of Ballycar, Oatfield, Co. Clare, has caused widespread sorrow and regret, not alone to his family but to all who knew him. Deceased, who was in his 77th year, passed quietly to his reward in the Great Beyond, on the 21st February.

The remains were removed to Truagh Church, on Friday evening, 22nd ult. The funeral took place after 11 o'clock Mass, on Saturday, 23rd ult., to Truagh Cemetery.

Rev. T. Hehir, C.C., officiated at the graveside.

Deceased, who was a member of the Old I.R.A. under the leadership of Captain M. Brennan, Meelick, rendered many services for the cause of liberty. The coffin was draped in the National colours. A contingent of L.D.F. men marched at each side of the hearse, with arms reversed, accompanied by Old I.R.A. comrades under the supervision of Section Leader Martin Naughton. Two volleys were fired over the grave and the Last Post sounded. Also in attendance were Col. Austin Brennan and Commdt. O'Farrell, Ennis.

Judging by the display of the representatives of t

GOOD NEWS

FOR WEST LIM
ANGLERS

Newcastle West Deel Association branch (Newcastle West) has completed arrangements for laying of a hatchery for a stretch of the town river Quay between Phelan's the entrance to Dr. O'Connell's. When the work is completed fishing on that part of the river will be greatly improved. The Association hopes to be coming few weeks to fry on the Deel at Droichead Castlemahon and work completed in the erecting of a bank for the convenience of future fishing in the river confined to members