

reached the Dail.

Mr. McMahon agreed, and said the public had been led to believe the Harbour Board had done something crooked.

Ald. Carew—I have met several people who believed that we were trying to do something "hookey." I think it is up to ourselves to clear the air by publishing the correspondence.

Mayor—It is obvious that somebody has put it up to the Minister that we have been trying, as the saying is, to work a fast one. We have been misrepresented to the Minister and to the public.

It was unanimously agreed to publish the correspondence, and Ald. Bourke agreed to contact the other two City Deputies with a view to making another effort to see the Minister.

DEATH.

FROST (Meelick, Co. Clare)—March 19, 1946, at her residence, Summerhill House, Meelick, Bedelia, relict of James L. Frost, and mother of Sister M. Austin and Sister Veronica, Mater Hospital, Dublin, and Sister M. Theckla, Baggot Street, and Sister M. Kevin, St. Mary's, Limerick. Deeply and deservedly regretted by her sorrowing son and daughters. R.I.P. Remains will be removed to Meelick Church this (Wednesday) evening at 6 o'clock (S.T.). Solemn Requiem Mass to-morrow (Thursday) at 11 o'clock (S.T.). Funeral immediately afterwards to family burial place, Punchbowl, Meelick.

adaptation the young actresses a good performance. Pres was by the girls of Scoile

"Fa Brath Brighid" was by some exceptional acting parts of D. Dynan (as Beann"), and C. Ni Conna "An Cailin." All the other bers of the cast were ade their roles, and the play was presented by the pupil Salesian convent, was a ve offering.

"Oidhce Bealtaine." MacLiammo's fairy-atmo pletically-dialogued play, very well treated by the g really fine cast from An Scoil. Production was ski the acting of A. Corrigan, Folughda, and M. Mea nothing to be desired.

Here are the aristocrats of rick's juvenile theatredon actors or actresses who d a very high standard of a this year's festival merit in this dispatch.

Nearly everyone of the cast that presented "Bfhu Annso"—C. O Rian, D. Og daighe, R. Mac Innreachta O'Brien, G. Mac Giolla Dr G. O. Tighearaigh—gave a interpretations of difficult. Incidentally, this cast had n links, and its actors show finest team-work seen dur entire Feile.

C. O Ceallaigh gave an e exhibition of his acting ab the ease with which he pla stiff role of "Campbell of K