FUNERAL OF MRS. B. FROST

The funeral of Mrs. Bedelia Frost, relict of the late Mr. James L. Frost, Summerhill House, Cratloe, from Meelick Parish Church on Thursday, 21st inst., to the family burial place at Clonlisk was of huge proportions.

The late Mrs. Frost was a kindly lady, charitable in a degree, and possessed many other fine traits of character that endeared her, not only to her immediate neighbours, but to hosts of people over a very extended area. She had four daughters in religion—Sister M. Austin and Sister Veronica, both at the Mater Hospital Dublin; Sister M. Theckla, Royal City of Dublin Hospital, and Sister M. Kevin, St. Mary's, Limerick. Her only son, Mr. J. P. Frost, is a prominent figure in Irish sporting circles. He is a director of Limerick Greyhound Racing Track and a breeder of outstanding greyhounds and racehorses.

The interment took place after Solemn Requiem Mass. The celebrant was Rev. J. O'Donnell, C.C., Parteen; deacon, Rev. J. White, C.C., St. Michael's; sub-deacon, Rev. J. Houlihan, C.C., Parteen; master of ceremonies, Rev. J. Brassill, Adm., St. John's.

The chanters in the choir were: Very Rev. J. Canon Wallace, P.P., Pallaskenry; Very Rev. J. Moloney, P.P., Parteen; Very Rev. D. Hourigan, P.P., Kilbehenny; Rev. Dr. Cowper, Adm., St. Michael's; Rev. Wm. O'Grady, C.C., St. John's; Rev. J. Moran, C.C., do.; Rev. P. O'Regan, C.C., St. Patrick's; Rev. Father Aloysius, O.F.M.

The chief mourners were:—Jim (son), Sister M. Austin, Sister M. Theckla, Sister M. Veronica, Sister M. Kevin and Florrie (daughters), Mrs. J. P. Frost (daughter-in-law), Ormond, Thecla, Veronica and Kevin (grandchildren), Mrs. Cullinan (sister) and Mrs. Mulqueen (sister-in-law).

NEXT SUNDAY'S SAVOY CONCERT

Another all-star concert, concentrating heavily on music and song, will be presented at the Savoy Cinema on Sunday next. Heading the bill will be Tadhg O'Connor, Cork, a tenor with a very fine reputation in the South. William O'Toole was to be here on Sunday next, but owing to a motor-cycling accident, in which he received burns to his hands and legs, he will not be up and about for some time to come. His numerous friends and "fans" in Limerick wish him a speedy and complete recovery. William Rice, bass, has prepared an attractive programme entitled "Gems from the Operas," and this item is heralded as being a distinct treat. Nancy O'Carroll, Limerick's great soprano, will be making a special "public command" appearance, and something really special is expected from this rising and accomplished artiste. Sorensen, a Cork exponent of the electric guitar, will be a novel and artistic turn on the star-studded bill. Highlight of the evening will be the latest eagerly-awaited appearance of the Rink Orchestra under the baton of Johnny McMahon and featuring "Anita" (the wonder child). This is Johnny's first stage appearance since he was successful in winning the Paul Bernard Cup for violin at the Feile Luimnighe. The O'Rourke School of Dancers (always faultless and Tadhg Foley (incomparable compere) complete the bill, which includes Stanley Bowyer at the organ.

DRUG SMUGGLERS

Italian police in Como have arrested three members of a ring of Penicillin smugglers and seized eight million lire (£40,000) worth of the drug which the men were carrying in phials, it was learned yesterday. One of the three is described as a "ringleader and prominent Italian high-ranking official."

KILFINANE CHESS TOURNAMENT.

Heartiest congratulations are extended to Master Joseph Brazzill, Main St., Kilfinane, who, for the second year in succession, has won the Kilfinane chess tournament. The runner-up this year was Mr Val. Cox[illegible], Ballinanima.

weeks ago, as it was even then quite plain that he had no case.

OBITUARY

MR. T. DILLANE, GLIN.

Glin has lost in the passing of Mr. T. Dillane one of its most popular residents, who died at his home, Main Street, Glin, after a short illness. He was a member of an old Glin Nationalist family, and "Papa," as he was affectionately called, was a landmark at Glin. He was a life-long supporter of the National movement, and his home was always a refuge of the heroic members of the movement, not only of Glin but the adjoining counties, and as a token of the esteem in which he was held, his funeral was the largest yet to Kilergus. Glin, his family burial place.

Rev. Fr. Carroll, P.P., and Rev. Fr. McCarthy, C.C., Glin, officiated.

Chief mourners—Mrs. Margaret Dillane (widow); Patrick (Bobby) (son); Mrs. Patrick Normoyle and Mrs. Michael Finn (daughters); Mr. Matthew Dillane (brother); Mr. Patrick Normile and Mr. M. Finn (sons-in-law); Patrick Dillane (nephew); Mr. James O'Connor (brother-in-law).

Mass Cards, telegrams and letters were sent by the following:—His family; Mary and Patrick; Margaret and Mick; brother Matt, Patrick and Mary Ellen; O'Connor family, Athea; the Culhane family, Tullaleague; Wm. Dillane and family; O'Farrell family, Listowel; Tom and B. O'Connell, Terrace; A. M. Moloney; Patrick Costello and family; Maurice Stack and family, Leitrim; Culhane family, 4 Church Street; the King family, Glin; Gertie and Mick Normile; Mrs. and Michael Enright, Kilmurry, Tarbert; Mrs. Mulvihill and family; Mrs. Jones and Catherine; the Cahill family; Patrick and Dolly Fitzgerald, Cahara; the Dore family; James and Sheila, John and Annie Fitzgerald; Annie Fitzgibbon, Ballinacurra, Limerick; J. Henigan, Foynes; the Fitzgerald family, Clonoughter; the Hogan family; Helena Dillane and Ann Cregan; the Hogan family; John and Mai Cregan; the Scanlon family, Tennekilla (cousins); Maggie Molony; Mrs. Dunne and family; Mr. and Mrs. James Dore; the O'Donovan family, Dublin; Mary Conway, Rathgar, Dublin; John and Janie Conway, Killorglin; David and Mary Moore; Culhane Draper and family; Mrs. Ellen Walker, Jack and Kitty Adams, Eastwood; Jack and Madge Purcell, Askeaton; Kit Culhane, Paddy and Mary Madigan, P. and Kate Ruddle, Moss Walshe and family; McGrath family; Bridgie Walsh, Askeaton; P. Costello and family.

DEATH OF MISS E. LEAHY, ABBEYFEALE

The death of Miss Elizabeth Leahy, sister of the late Mr. Dan Leahy, solicitor, of Main Street, Abbeyfeale, occurred at the age of 88 (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). A member of a family associated with the trading interests of the town for the past century and a half, she was highly esteemed and respected for many excellent qualities. There were few more intelligently conversant with events of historic interest connected with West Limerick, or who preserved such informative records of incidents from the days of Captain Rock, leader of the "Rockites" and "Whiteboys," between 1800 and the coaching days of the Liberator, O'Connell. There was a very large attendance of the general public at the removal of the remains to the Parish Church, and next day at the interment in the Old Abbey Cemetery, where lie the remains of her great-grandfather, who in 1822, at a Special Commission at Limerick, was arraigned for high treason, charged with the burning of one of his own houses in the town, to prevent its further occupation by the Crown Forces of the time, and who was acquitted. Many expressions of sympathy were tendered to the bereaved relatives, and Mass cards received from many friends and relatives. Very Rev. P. Canon Carroll, P.P., V.F., read the prayers at the graveside, assisted by Rev. J. Halpin, C.C.; Rev. J. Liston, C.C.; Rev. C. Harnett, N.Y.; Rev. M Murphy M.H.F.

efforts of all the Hollywood Studios, the "Hollywood Canteen" became a reality with Bette Davis and John Garfield as president and vice-president, respectively. The story of the Canteen and the hundreds of famous stars who go there on their "off-hours" to entertain the men is being told in a full-length film tribute all this week at the Lyric, and, indeed, so successful has this picture been during the week that it is being retained. There are several elaborate scenes from popular stars and, peculiarly enough, the best one is, in my opinion, the act from Roy Rogers and his famous horse, "Trigger." The violen duet (Jack Benny and Joseph Szigeti), Jimmy Dorsey and his band, and songs from Eddie Cantor and Joe E. Brown are other notable items in a film story that does not flag for a moment of its two hours running time. Other stars appearing include Joan Crawford, Ida Lupino, Barbara Stanwyck, Paul Henreid, the Sons of the Pioneers and dozens of famous actors and actresses.

THOMOND—Monday's "Murder In The Blue Room" is a murder mystery with music that devotees of this type of entertainment will find to their liking. The capable cast boasts Anne Gwynne, Donald Cook, Grace McDonald and Betty Kean (the latter putting over a Joan Davis act effectively).

"The Monster And The Girl" (Wednesday and Thursday) is the tale of a man who paid the supreme penalty for murder. After his death his brain is removed and grafted into the skull of a gorilla. The dead man was unjustly convicted and has sworn revenge on those for whose crime he suffered. What happens when the brute with a human brain breaks out of the scientists laboratory to seek out his betrayers is one of the stunning thrills in this exciting melodrama.

Friday's "The Big Show-Off" is a romantic comedy, starring Arthur Lake and Dale Evans.

ATHENAEUM—Laurence Olivier and Vivien Leigh are co-starred in "21 Days," the attraction here on Monday next. This is a most enjoyable film, considerably enchanced by the captivating performances of two of the world's most popular "movie" stars.

Thursday's "No, No, Nanette," is a film version of the famous musical comedy, and stars Anna Neagle. Also in the cast of this fine picture are Victor Mature, Richard Carlson and Helen Broderick.

COLISEUM—The greatest galaxy of talent ever assembled for a single motion picture may be seen and heard in "The Goldwyn Follies," due here on Monday. This is the story of a beautiful young girl whose unspoiled outlook is a great help to a "movie" producer in selecting the stories which she considers the average audiences wish to see. The full cast is printed on page one.

Wednesday's "The House Of Frankenstein" has Lon Chaney once again drawing his pension in a Universal film about Dracula, the Wolf Man and in fact all the products of this "horrific" series. Technically the film is excellent and indeed is served up as quite good entertainment. Lon Chaney and John Carradine star.

Friday's "The Falcon And The Co-Eds" stars Tom Conway solving a series of murders in a film studio; while for a support the management has booked "End Of The Road," the exciting story of a self confessed murderer. Edward Norris and June Story supply the romance and a special word of praise is due to the acting of John Abbott.

TIVOLI—Monday's period romance—"Come and Get It"—is the actionful story of a man's love for a girl whom he loses to his best friend. Years later their daughter grows up exactly like her mother used be when she was young, and the lumber king (Edward Arnold) makes a bid to capture the heart of the girl who reminds him of his lost love. When his son announces that he is about to marry her, events move to a powerful climax. Joel Mc Crea and Frances Farmer share starring honours with Walter Breana.

Wednesday's "Cargo of Innocents" is notable for a naval battle with the Japs that shows the action from both sides. This is a very thrilling picture, highlighted by many moments of hilarious laughter. Robert Taylor, Charles Laughton and Brian Donlevy star.

Friday's re-issues include "Three Sons of Guns" (Wayne Morris and Irene Rich) and "Missing Witness" co-starring Dick Purcell and attractive June Travis who is now, I understand, retired from the screen.

SECOND DAY'S SALES.

There was another good clearance when the sales were resumed on Wednesday in spring sunshine, and before another large attendance of purchasers. The Crash Tackle bitch, Light Princess, a consistent sort on track and field, was in keen demand. She had won a sales trial in 30.80 previously, and was successful on three occasions at the Markets Field last season. There was a quick advance in the bidding for her, and the hammer fell at 700 guineas, Mr. Barry being the purchaser. The Young Bawnmore Lad pup. Trisloge, who negotiated the regulation distance in a sales trial in 30.90 (best of Tuesday's times) was sold for 510 guineas. Another of Bawnmore Lad's progeny—Bawnmore Captain—winner of a sales trial in 31.30, went for 250 guineas, and yet another Bawnmore Lad youngster, Star Point, who clocked 31.65 for his first effort ever on the track, made 200 guineas. The Fishing Smack dog, Reen's Fisher, who was first in his sales trial, winning by a head in 31.05, was sold for 300 guineas. The best timer of the day was Friendly Fiddler—30.98—but he realised only 84 guineas, due to his age.

The outstanding transactions (in guineas) were:—
