and winners of last year's competition, coming second. In the adult section the members of the Scariff Vocational Schools took first prize, defeating a troupe sent forward by the East Clare Farmers' Club. There was very keen competition.

Mrs. McDonagh, N.T., who adjudicated, gave great praise to the troupes, who were all very good and some of them exceptionally so. She then gave a very instructive criticism of their shortcomings, which was recognised by all as being very helpful.

The following also spoke—Mr.
Vaughan, M.A.; Mr. P. O. Maol-chiarain, and Mr. Martin Edmonds, M.A.

KNOCKLONG DRAMATIC SOCIETY

Knocklong Amateur Dramatic Society were accorded a most encouraging and enthusiastic reception when, at Hospital on Sunday night last, they presented to a very large audience George Shiels' well-known play, "Paul Twining." The performance was a credit to the players, and particularly to those behind the scenes, who coached and trained them.

The cast was:—"Paul Twining," Mr. L. Hanly; "James Deegan," Mr.
M. Cleary; "Dan Deegan," Mr. T.
Gainey; "Patrick Deegan," Mr. D.
Cleary; "Mrs. Deegan," Miss B.
Fitzsimons; "John Deegan," Mr. M.
Gainey; "Yankie Mullan," Miss M.
Fitzsimons; "Mr. O'Hagan," Mr. T.
Cotter; "Rose McGothigan," Miss
B. Cleary.
