OBITUARY

—oo—

MRS. NEVILLE BARRIGONE.

After a long illness Mrs. John Neville, Barrigone, passed peacefully to her eternal reward on Tuesday, 2nd inst. Her passing is deeply regretted by her sorrowing husband and family, and by a host of relations and friends throughout West Limerick. Deceased belonged to an old and highly respected family, the Fitzgeralds of Lisduff, Askeaton. She was of a generous disposition, possessed many admirable traits of character and was loved by all. The keen interest she took in modern dress—though she belonged to an older generation—stimulated great taste in dress among her acquaintances.

The funeral took place on the following day from Robertstown Church, Askeaton Cemetery, and was largely represented. At Askeaton the cortege was joined by people from her own native place. Officiating clergy were:—Rev. Father Cussen, C.C., Foynes; Rev. Father O'Byrne, C.C., Shanagolden, and Rev. Father Rea, C.C., Askeaton.

Mass cards were received from the following:—Eddie and Kitty Guiles; Mary and children; Nellie; Tom and Father; Jack and Bridgie; Ellen Mulcair and family; Jerry and Kathleen Mulcair, Foynes; Mrs. Mulcair and family, Croagh; John and Mrs. Fitzgerald, Adare; David Fitzgerald; Dan and Mrs. Heffernan; Kay and Mary Heffernan, Limerick; Mrs. Allen and family Barrigone; Mrs. Blackwell and family; Henry and Violet Blackwell, Askeaton; Babe Ryan and family; Mary Dundon; Jim and Clara Dundon; Jim and Madge Wall, Foynes; Mick and Nance O'Brien, Barrigone; Joe Scanlon; Paddy and Babe Wall and family; O'Byrne family, Foynes; the Cunnane family, Foynes; Bill and Ciss Fitzgerald, Ringmoylan; Askeaton Pioneer T.A. Association; Hannie and Mattie O'Carroll, Ballysteen; the O'Connor family, Morgans; the Nolan family; Mick and Mollie; Mrs. J. Guerin, Lismakery.

Telegrams of sympathy were received from:—Major Joseph Dundon, Youghal, and Mr. M. Keyes, T.D. Limerick.

SAVOY CONCERT

William O'Toole, tenor, will sing several solos at the Savoy concert on Sunday next and will also appear with William Rice, baritone. Kathleen O'Keefe, the well-known soprano, is also billed to appear. Cotter and Coughlan will be here in some new comedy sketches. Dick Donegan, Cork's Hill Billy star and Maura Green's Girls are other equally attractive items on the variety sheet.

Johnny McMahon, with his quintet and his talented niece, Anita Cronin, will add much to the programme. Altogether this promises to be a most enjoyable show, the booking for which is now open.
