Corporation discussed better ways and means for lighting the city.
Unfortunately, the discussion ended practically on the same lines as all others, do., literally speaking, marked "read."

To improve the lighting of the city I would suggest central lighting everywhere, like it is in O'Connell Street at present. All that is required is a long "arm" from each pole to come midway across the street. No extra lamps would be required and the cost of doing the job would, I am sure, entail little expense. At the moment the streets and footpaths on one side are brightly lit up, while on the opposite side they are in semi-darkness. Yours faithfully,

"LUX."

TWO SUDDEN DEATHS

Two deaths from heart failure have occurred in Limerick within twenty-four hours of each other.

On Wednesday evening the Fire Brigade ambulance was summoned to remove a man who had collapsed in the street. On admission to Barrington's Hospital he was found to be dead. He was Mr. Christopher O'Connor, 6 Maher Avenue, Prospect.

Yesterday morning the ambulance was called to the premises of Messrs. F. Spaight & Son to remove an employee, Patrick Murray, aged 50 years, who had suddenly collapsed. On admission to the Co.
Infirmary the man was found to be dead. The deceased, a married man, had cycled from his home in Mungret to work, and had only just begun operations when he collapsed.

PRESENTATION

Mr. Michael Whelan, who has been stationmaster at Ballymoe, Co.
Roscommon, for a number of years, has been recently transferred to Abbeydorney, Co. Kerry. On the occasion of his departure he was presented by the station staff with a wallet of notes. Mr. Whelan, who has been associated with the Railway Company for a long number of years, is a member of a well-known Newcastle West family, and was formerly a member of the railway staff in that town.

DUBLIN-RINEANNA AIR SERVICE

Aer Lingus announces the opening on Wednesday next of an air service between Dublin and Rineanna Airport. Details of this new service can be seen from an advertisement on page one of this issue.
Further particulars will be found in the time-table issued by the Company and which can be had at any Aer Lingus office or from any travel agency.

in selling tea at one time, but has ceased to do so now. He had nothing to add, only to leave the matter rest at that.

Mr. Power—There are a number of previous convictions against the defendant.

The Justice said that he had no doubt about Miss O'Sullivan's evidence. He did not doubt, either, that the defendant was making a regular practice of unlawful sales in respect of tea and sugar. In an effort to stop such practices he would make an example of the defendant. He imposed a fine of £25 on number one summons; £10 on the second, and similar fines in connection with the tea, making a total of £70.

On application by Mr. O'Malley the Justice allowed two months to pay in the event of an appeal.

RIOT IN PRISON

—oo—

GRIM BATTLE FOR FREEDOM

Messages received to-day from New York state that the prisoners detained within the grey walls of the Alcatraz Prison, in San Francisco Bay, are at present engaged in a determined bid to gain their freedom.

According to reports a prisoner early this morning, wrested a gun from a guard and then made his way to the arsenal. Other prisoners joined in the fray, and in a comparatively short time a riot broke out in the prison.

It is stated that many of the prisoners have armed themselves with guns. They have taken command of a rising inside the prison and from this point of vantage have opened fire on the prison guards.

Gunfire is proceeding all day, and hundreds of people have taken up positions along the waterfront to watch the flashes of fire.

The battle was still in progress the time of going to Press.

TRANSFER OF POPULAR SERGEANT

The Committee of Caherconlish Lawn Tennis Club presented Ser-R. Boyle with an ornamental clock on the occasion of his transfer to Lusk, Co. Dublin. In making the presentation, Mr. T. Looney, chairman, said that the members regretted the departure of the popular joint secretary. They appreciated Sergt. Boyle's efforts in the club's interest and in depart-he had the satisfaction of knowing that those efforts were crowned with success, as the present financial position of the club indicated.
