OBITUARY

MRS. MARGARET CASEY,

A Friend Writes:the same remark was on everybody's lips when they heard of the death of Mrs. Casey, of Glin:—
"She never had a hard word to say of anyone." They spoke only the truth. She went through life looking for the good that is in everyone and always found it-at times in the most unlikely places. she had the true humility that retuses to judge others. Few will forget her quiet humour, or her courtbehind her the memory of a life rich in good deeds and in achievement. For all who mourn her passing there is the consolation of knowing that the Lord will be as kind to her as she was to others and that He is never outdone in

Mrs. Margaret Casey, ex-Principal Teacher of Glin Infants School, was wife of Mr. Timothy Principal, Ballyguiltenane Boys School. Her life was marked by an outstanding devotion to Our Lady and on a Saturday, Our Lady's day, she was called to her reward. The funeral took place on the 29th April, the Feast of the
