

Stillorgan, Dublin, received the Habit. of Mrs. and the vany, Nicholas St., brother of Sister convent of the Poor Brother Giles was, the Order, on the & P. Newsom and eet, Limerick.

LED IN ROAD LISION

te motor car was lision with a horse main road to New- Coolanoran on he horse got killed es were damaged. the driver of the slight injuries.

ALKS SUFFER

were severely gardens and allot- stle West district on Tuesday night wcastle West cor- a consequence, it he potato crop in delayed for some

CLOYNE VISITS LEVILLE

Most Rev. Dr. of Cloyne, visited Tuesday and con- us examination of the local schools. on ceremony will esday next.

CESS AT FEIS COIL

solo singing com- eis Ceoil in Dublin Michael Fleming, ers Schools, Lime- ced second and medal.

E TOTAL

in the Archdiocese mly in response to r's appeal for the of Europe totals

SHARKS

ets heavily laden e being hauled in our basking sharks n the nets, which asing most of the arried on in Dublin ssrs. James Adams ntique Chippendale s made £160.

RS MAKE £160

to carry to the Hon. Secretary, Ozanam House, Limerick or to the Administrator, St. Michael's Presbytery, Limerick.

RATHKEALE MAN'S POST AT LISDOONVARNA

Mr. J. J. Lynch, son of Mr. Patrick Lynch, The Paddocks, Rathkeale, and brother of Mr. Christopher Lynch, the famous tenor, who is now in Rome getting the finishing touches from Signor Morelli, the eminent Italian maestro, has been appointed Manager of the Lisdoonvarna Improvements Association, Ltd., He is a man of great energy and initiative and under his capable management the Association should make marked and steady progress. It may be mentioned in this connection that the wells and baths for which Lisdoonvarna has such renown will, under his direction, open on Monday next, 20th inst., after which date all treatments, baths, etc. can be had.

THE COUNTY FEIS

The announcement that a number of teams from Limerick, Cappamore, Tipperary and Kilfinane have entered for the chess tournament in connection with the County Feis, to be held in Kilfinane on the 2nd of June, has aroused great interest in the district (writes our Kilfinane correspondent). The draw will take place and the preliminary rounds played on Sunday, May 26th, commencing at 7 p.m. (summer time).

The senior dramatic competitions will commence on Friday, May 31st, at 7 p.m., and the junior competitions on Saturday, June 1st, at 12 noon.

PASSING OF EX-TEACHER

His teacher colleagues in Dromcollogher (writes our correspondent there) learned with regret of the recent death of Mr. John O'Grady, ex-N.T., Feenagh, which took place at his residence in Feenagh last week. For many years he was chairman of the Dromcollogher Branch, I.N.T.O., and was ever a loyal and steadfast member of the profession.

JUMBLE SALE

A very valuable jumble sale will be held in the Dominican Hall on the 24th and 25th May. All those who promised to send in goods for the sale are kindly reminded to deposit them at the Dominican Priory not later than Thursday, 23rd May. The sale will open at 3 p.m.

able, and they are not carry heavy luggage, which would require to be placed on top of bus. Members having expressed the opinion that it would be desirable to have a few stopping places in the city, have bus stop signs signifying country bus departures. Mr. Sheehan stated that he is exploring the possibility of having one or two stopping places as suggested, at the same time pointing out certain difficulties in this respect. The meeting decided to leave the matter in Mr. Sheehan's hands.

Hotel Project.—The Chamber is still continuing negotiations with regard to this project, and it is hoped that by next meeting substantial headway will be made in this regard.

'Bus Sign on Narrowest Part of Pathway.—Complaint having been made of the erection of a bus sign outside No. 16, William Street, the narrowest part of the pathway—causing considerable congestion—it was decided to make representation to the Garda authorities to have this sign removed a short distance in either direction.

Improved Methods for Handling Cargo at Limerick Port.—The meeting was informed that the Directors recently nominated the unmentioned members to represent the Chamber at a conference to be summoned by the Limerick Harbour Commissioners representative of the Harbour Board, Dock Society, Chamber of Commerce, Coal Merchants to discuss the possibility of introducing improved methods for handling cargo at Limerick Port:—Mr. P. E. O'Malley, President; Mr. G. E. Russell, B. Vice-President; Mr. J. A. McMal and Mr. F. B. Jorgenson.

Letters From Foreign Importers and Exporters.—The gist of the letters having been previously conveyed to the members, they were informed that the letters would be placed on the notice board in the reading room after the meeting if anybody interested.

The meeting concluded with the sale of some additional periodicals. (Other matters before the meeting will be found reported under separate headings).

WHIST REGAINING POPULARITY

Once again the whist drive in Dominican Hall last Friday had a record attendance. The growing popularity of the game was evident not merely in the increase of the number of old whist fans but also in the numbers of those who are anxious to learn. At this rate the increase, whist will soon have established itself. Next drive on Friday night at 9.15 in the same Hall. Scoring cards, 1/-.