SATURDAY'S POINTERS.

The "big guns" appear on Saturday night in bringing round one of the St. Leger classic to close. In the 15th heat, all the entries have good credentials. Let Out Tiger finishes well, while Heroic Captain and Prairie Pirate are swift starters, and considerable improvement has been displayed by Carass Hill lately. On the strength of his trial run, it looks as if Heroic Captain, who, incidentally, was one of the select few to extend Quare Times at Clonmel, should win, with Let Out Tiger likely to follow him home.

In the 16th heat, Minadex, owing to an injury to a toe, must be regarded as a doubtful starter. Moher Strand showed grand pace in his trial, and is unbeaten. I fancy him to win from Nancy Tanist and Tiger Kit.

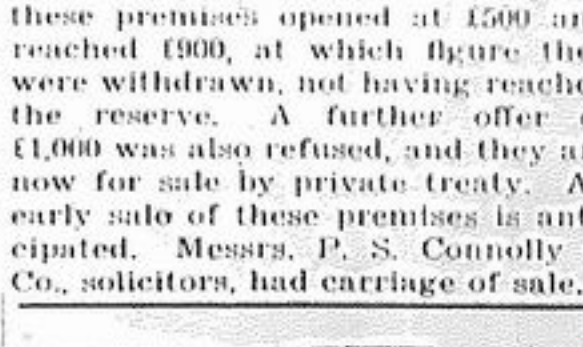

The last heat is the tit-bit of the first round, and a great race is probable. Gibbonstown Square finishes well, a remark which also applies to Ral Nitruc, Fair Coup and Bulgaden Kiwi. However, Star Point is considered a dog out of the ordinary. I am not going to oppose this opinion. He was a clear winner of his trial on Monday in 31.60. Granted that he will be first away, he should win.

TO-MORROW NIGHT'S CARD.

1st Race (525)—Midnight Chancellor, Meara's Pet, Give Me A Name, Dash O'Mint, Molly Bawnmore, Whippa Boy.

2nd Race (525)—Ennis Cut, Loughane Flier, Halcyon Kitty, Kibbreedy Creamery, Budding Cherry, Wireless Hero.

St. Leger (15th Heat, 1st Round)—Locca Doon, Let Out Tiger, Rosacoon, Heroic Captain, Prairie Pirate, Carass Hill.
