 The day I remember well,
 You went from my bedside,
 And never said farewell.

AN APPEAL
LATE
CIARAN O'KELLY,
N.T.

The untimely death of Mr. Ciaran O'Kelly, N.T., has removed from our midst an exemplary citizen, a loyal and energetic member of the Trade Union Movement, an untiring worker on behalf of the National Teachers' and an active member of Muintir na Tire and Feile Luimnighe, and Vocational Education Committee.

For thirty years he was a member of the City Trades Council, and before his death was its Chairman. Although he was always an uncompromising champion of the workers' cause, his singleness of purpose and genuine fairness won for him the confidence and esteem of the employers. In furtherance of peace in the industrial life of the city, his aim was to revive the Conciliation Board, which did so much good in former years.

The sympathy of all goes out to the widow and eight young children in their hour of sorrow. Unfortunately, his salary as a teacher scarcely sufficed to provide the minimum essentials for his family. His recent illnesses and the death of three children thwarted his desire to make provision for his loved ones.

In these circumstances, we, the undersigned, appeal to his many friends and admirers to subscribe to the fund, now opened, for the bereaved family:—Ald. M. Hartney, Mayor, Town Hall, Limerick; Ven. Rev. Canon M. Moloney, P.P., V.P. St. Munchin's, Limerick; An Dochtuir Se Cuiper, S.P., Tig na Pairce Luimneach; James McQuane, chairman, Trades Council, La Verna, Farranshane; M. J. Keyes, T.D., 7, Markets Field Terrace, Limerick; Ald. D. Bourke, T.D., Dominick St., Limerick; Ald. J. Reidy, T.D., Corbally, Limerick; P. O'Malley, President of Chamber of Commerce, the Strand; A.
