

CITY CINEMAS

(By E.C.)

SAVOY—"To-Morrow the World" the daring and hard-hitting film makes its eagerly-awaited appearance in Limerick at the Savoy on Monday next for positively three days only. The story deals with the problems which develop when a Nazi-trained youth arrives in the United States and proceeds to try out his Hitler manufactured doctrines on an average middle-class American family. Skippy Homeier, child star, makes his screen debut in the role he created so successfully in the stage presentation. He breaks up the romance between Fredric March and Betty Field, assaults Joan Carroll and has three fights with other boys.

Thursday's double feature is a pleasant blending of two distinct types of film fare—Richard Arlen in "The Phantom Speaks" (a melodrama) and "Hitchhike to Happiness" (a light affair). They should prove ideal week-end filmgoing.

* * *

LYRIC—There is a change of programme at this house since yesterday afternoon. The double-feature booking now running is "Pursuit to Algiers," a Sherlock Holmes melodrama, with Basil Rathbone and Nigel Bruce, and for a support, Gloria Jeane in "Easy to Look At."

Monday's "Till We Meet Again" is the story of Cister Clothilde, a young and beautiful novice in a Catholic Monastery who discards the sanctuary of the Church to aid the escape of an American aviator who is on a mission to deliver important plans to the Allied forces from the French underground movement.

Ray Milland, as the American, is at his dramatic peak, and Barbara Britton, as Sister Clothilde, possesses the classic beauty and delicate restraint which mark the qualities of action and interpretation of which stars are made. The cast includes Walter Slezak, Lucile Watson and Konstantin Shayne.

Running time, 1 hour and about 26 minutes.

* * *

GRAND CENTRAL—"Her Highness And The Bellboy" will conclude its run here to-morrow night. This is a fantasy with some exquisite dream sequences and a popular cast headed by Hedy Lamarr, Robert Walker and June Allyson.

Monday's attraction—"Dancing In Manhattan"—stars Fred Brady, Jeff Donnell, William Wright and Ann Savage in an entertaining story which is most pleasantly told and acted.

The support will be a Western—Russell Hayden and Lucille Lambert in "Inside Information."

"David Copperfield," a great film, has been re-issued and will have its Eire presentation here on Thursday next. There are no less than 65 stars in this outstanding production.

OBITUARY

—00—

MISS J. McMAHON.

The death which occurred recently, of Miss Josephine MacMahon has come as a great shock to her mother, sisters, brothers, relatives and friends. She possessed many sterling qualities which endeared her to a large circle of friends, and was beloved by all for her gentle, loving and unassuming disposition.

The deceased was youngest daughter of Mrs. MacMahon, and the late James MacMahon, 14, Ellen St., Limerick.

The funeral took place from St. Michael's Church on May 6th, and the large cortege that accompanied same bore testimony to the esteem in which deceased was held.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs. MacMahon (mother), Martin, Jim and Patrick (brothers); Eileen, Mrs. G. C. Barry, Mrs. J. O'Dwyer (sisters); G. C. Barry, J. O'Dwyer (brothers-in-law).

Telegrams and letters were received from the following—Shannon family, Roscrea; Barry family, Roscrea; Bowers family, Roscrea; Vera Dwyer, Gould's Cross; Jim and Monica Byrne, Kilcullen; Mr. and Mrs. J. Barry, Cork; Rev. T. Quilligan, Dublin; Mr. and Mrs. T. MacMahon, Dublin; Jim Lynch, Kerry; Julia Duffy, Co. Louth; Noel Malone, England; Mrs. Ryan and family, Roscrea; Agnes White, Dublin; Mrs. Shaw, Clarecastle; Committee and members of the Limerick Boat Club.

Mass cards were received from the following:—Loving mother, sisters and brothers; Kathleen and George; Madge and Jim; uncle Pat and Lizzie; uncle John; Maggie and family; uncle Frank; Bridie and family; uncle Dick; Lena and family; Mrs. Quilligan and family, Broad St.; the Quilligan family, St. Joseph's St.; Rita, Mary O'Dwyer, Ballinacurra; Lillian O'Dwyer, do.; John Gabbett, Grania; Mrs. Malone and family; the Bowers family, Roscrea; Agnes White, Dublin; Anne O'Farrell, Farranshone; P. Healy and family; Kathleen Maher; Angela and Nonie; Mrs. Murphy and family, Denmark St.; Mrs. and M. J. McNamara, Pentland, Ennis Road; Mr. and Mrs. T. Waters and family; George and Kathleen Gleeson; Kathleen O'Shea; Mrs. B. O'Halloran and family; Mr. and Mrs. Ryan and family; Mrs. Parker and family; Mrs. O'Brien and family, Standard Stores; Jim Murnane, Corbally; Sam, Jack and Joe Benson; Mr. and Mrs. George Benson; Hennie O'Donnell; Kitty and Jack Cowhey; Willie and Evelyn Walsh, Caherdavin; the MacMahon family, Clonmacken; Molly Fitzgerald, Lannie and Joe MacMahon; the O'Neill family, Cecil St.; Julia Duffy, Co. Louth; Bridget Creagh and Bridie Horan; Birdie and Kitty Lehane.

PRIZE SCHEME

Galvanize

AGAIN IN

Morg

McMahon

LTD.,

MULGRAV
LIMERICK

LISTON'S

Prescription Dispensing is carried out by a Qualified Chemist only the Purest prescriptions are dispensed by a second chemist being sent out.

W. HANLEY,
108, O'Connell St

LIMERICK J
RAC

FIRST JUNE
Thursday, June

STAKES
First Race,

Race Cards will be parts of the course 6d. The public will pay more than this (11c)

Grand Gy

At RATHFR

On SUNDAY,

Jumping, Dri

Novelty E

FIRST EVENT

ADMISSION
(1c)

CASTLETRO

CLU

—00—