

SEEKING SOCIAL

see that love of supremely possible utterly impossible by We know that He his unless we close move—that is, unre- the Incarnation in mic activities; keep- anity for Sunday is us if we wish to re of our social life our neighbour in must work for him strictly according to of Christ—given Church. Any other we simply love our ur actions are based st—that is, "how make out of it." nest with ourselves that, this spirit has grip of our public ding youth to dis- e and sin. All our being invaded and State secularism. o be educated for they no longer be- rents for this pur- on that God gave parents is "not hild is to be fed by igh a State institu- ate will look after s tendency has not sh soul very deeply -movement is under ining ground in the s are entirely to ure generations will historic period as betrayal" if we do rselves. When we Prime Minister of Attlee) stating that rk of Christ and the as no hope of secur- peace, we feel the ew Pentecost.

FAIR.

in most depart- in most about level fair. Calves, 2 to 3 5s.; yearlings, £6 to ars, £12 to £17 10s.; to £30; best others, ricted bulls £10 to

Entries close on Sunday morn- ing at 11 a.m., and may be handed to the secretary or any member of the committee.

JOHNNY McMAHON LEAVING LIMERICK

Versatile Johnny McMahon—he is equally proficient on the violin, saxophone and clarinet—will leave Limerick in a few days to fulfil an engagement for the summer season. He has been booked to play at the Rosapenna Hotel, Co. Donegal, one of the most famous hotels in the country, and will be joining the orchestra led by Gary Moore—radio star—who is well-known as one of the leading exponents of that diffi- cult instrument, the guitar.

For the next four months, there- fore, Johnny will be absent from the Bedford Rink, where he has led the resident orchestra for many years.

When the season concludes Johnny hopes to return to his former posi- tion, when the dancers of Limerick may once again trip the "light fantastic" to his many classical and dance arrangements.

DEATH OF FORMER D.C.

The death of Mr. Michael Conway, Glenbawn, on May 17th, at the ad- vanced age of 81 years, is deeply regretted by all those who knew him intimately (writes our Foynes correspondent). He will long be re- membered by many as a popular and interesting character. His sparkling and lively conversation al- ways made it a great pleasure to meet him. For 12 years, a member of the Rathkeale and Glin District Councils, and member of the Rath- Board of Guardians, he was a great labour advocate, and was interested in the welfare of all. He was also closely connected with the Land League, Sinn Fein and Fianna Fail movements. He was father of Mr. James Conway, N.T., Castlemahon.

ABBEYFEALE MARKETS.

Turf, 32/6 per ton; potatoes, 1/4 per stone; eggs, 2/ per doz; butter, figures were not exceed- prices held at the very age of about 33 gns.

SHOW AND SALE OF P. H. MADDEN &

Over 100 animals were for the Show and Sale Messrs. P. H. Madden auctioneers, Hospital, on The entry, which was for many years, comp first-class, attractive ani sales, which were con Mr. William J. Madden, continued from early until late in the evenin paratively good cleara effected.

The judges were:—Dr. Loughlin, Ballinamona, Hubert J. Barry, Esq., G House, Knocklong, and O'Rourke, Esq., Uregan Bruff.

First prize was awarded Conway, Kildromin, Kilt entry was sold to T. Effin, Charleville, for 45 second prize-winner, the of Michael Baggott. Her was purchased by Jos Quarry Hill, Kilmallock. Third prize went to Thoney, Rutagh, Herberts sold to William O'Rou grennan, for 41½ gns.

of Richard Rafferty, Ba Hospital, which was h mended, was sold to T. Athlacca, Kilmallock, for

The remaining princip tions, in guineas, were as P. Riordan to J. J. Ca D. McGrath to H. Barr O'Donovan to J. Fitzgera H. Donegan to D. O'Br Moloney to M. Cliffor Quinn to J. O'Keeffe, 3 Grath to J. J. O'Carro Riordan to T. Hanly, 31 oghue to J. O'Carroll, 3 gerald to D. Harty, 30½; to M. Carroll, 30½; J. Fi M. Hanly, 30; P. O'Rou O'Dwyer, 30; T. Kennedy Grath, 30; Very Rev. McCarthy to M. Wheel Barry to J. Collins, 28½; to M. Cloghessy, 28½; to J. O'Meara, 28; D. I Murphy, 28; J. McEniry don, 28; E. Quinn to P. J. Fogarty to M. O'C