

ical College and air-which Aer Rianta in-up near Collinstown ablished at Limerick proximity to one of rtant air junctions in nd also because of ent need of a college th may be equipped he better paid posi-

gent youths in Lime-environs are denied on because their par-ford to pay for their e University Cities.
see that there is a or young men in air it is up to the erick to demand and establishment of the College and the Air-in their midst. A Aeronautical Science
the nucleus of Lime-sity. Other faculties, inering. Arts, Com-would come later, but e made with one in Science, which would eds of young men and ust buck up and dents now before over-n gets away with it.

he Shannon Aero Club
e been "grounded"?
Dublin is jealous of go-ahead club? Look t, and don't be fooled centralisation.

"THOMOND."

BEQUESTS

CLARE WOMAN'S

Frost, of the Hill, Six-Co. Clare, who died on last, left personal gland and Eire valued obate has been granted er, William Frost, of dress, and John Dun-r, of 101, O'Connell St., he left £25 to "my for-at Ennis Dispensary," ehir; £50 to the Mayn to China; £10 to the sions, Cork, for charites in Eire; £10 each to enny Dinner Fund, the

The story of Boys' Town has been told in motion pictures, magazines, over the radio and by Father Flanagan, whose popularity as a speaker has resulted in a great demand upon his time.

It is understood that Monsignor Flanagan, during his visit in Ireland, will lecture in Limerick as well as in Dublin and Cork.

LIMERICK-BORN NUN

INTERRED AT ENNIS CONVENT

His Lordship Most Rev. Dr.
Fogarty, Bishop of Killaloe, presided at the obsequies of Sister Mary Rose McCarthy, a native of Limerick, whose interment took place in the Convent of Mercy Cemetery at Ennis on Friday.

Rev. J. Sexton, St. Flannan's College, was celebrant of the Solemn Requim Mass; Rev. J.
Hogan, deacon; Rev. Fr. Moloney, sub-deacon; and Rev. Fr. Mulqueen, master of ceremonies. Clergy also present were: Very Rev. Canon Quinn, President St. Flannan's College; Very Rev. Canon Vaughan, P.P., Quinn; Very Rev. B. McMahon, P.P.; Rev. J. Smyth, P.P., Doora; Very Rev. M. Hogan, Adm.; Rev.
T. Brady, C.C.; Rev. Fr. Holan, C.C., Crusheen; Rev. D. Kelly, C.C.; Rev. Fr. Senan, O.F.M.; Rev. Fr.
Valerian, O.F.M., Ennis; Rev. Fr.
O'Neill, C.C., Clarecastle.

Chief mourners were Mrs. Roberts, Mrs. Hannon, Mrs. O'Halloran (nieces), Mr. O'Dea (néphew), Mrs.
O'Dea, Mrs. Corry, Miss Brooks, Miss Byrne (cousins).

Sister Mary Rose had spent 56 years in the Order. She had laboured earlier in Corofin and Roscrea, but spent the greater part of her religious life in Ennis.

LUCK OF THE DRUM

HOW LIMERICK FARED

Three horses in the Irish Hospital's Sweepstake on the Derby

TOURIST BO

AND HOTEL PRO

Replying to a letter fr J. Carmody, Ennis, aski co-operation of the Tou in establishing a new Ennis, Mr J. P. O'Brien of the Irish Tourist Bo he was afraid the Board be of very much help in as they were workin moment on a definite p which did not provide fo able to say they would not be prepared to co-o

"We are definitely not
"he added," to take th in the promotion of a at Ennis because, as yo (Mr. Carmody) pointed are good hotels already i and the circumstances a same as in Limerick, have given a general a co-operation in advance

On the other hand, continued, if a local gr the stage of having an report on a building, a of the total cost and a that a substantial por necessary capital woul coming, the Board wou prepared to say on wha conditions they would to advance the necess by way of loan or inv

Finally he would sa immediate rush of hot ation in Ennis, due to ity of the Shannon Ai not be regarded as permanent to justify t of extra accommodati larly if additional acc was provided in Limer

FERGUS SYPHON

The County Manag
(Mr. D. O'Keeffe) has the work of laying a s the Fergus River be pr
He re-appointed Mr. F
B.E., as resident en salary of £7 7s. per we Owing to various d countered during th