

numerous in ated (writes ent). The ney, it is headquarters.
rage about geran and so far, due people, little
one. Many plating get-hunt the
their poultry
were shot
and Bally-
zzy old fox of poultry in tly but she anied by a
gave chase,
to flight.

MARKETS

old at £2 to three weeks;
toes, 1/4 to 1 per doz.;
hens, 10d.;
bages, 10/-

Order Printing
ERICK LEADER
to 70 80.

ut in sup-ossible the hed to the
he stated
the store
ment could oly by the
of every
this way accrue to embers, he ter interest
ss of their genuine co-ciety which o meet the
ture. Mr.
anking the
ous contri-

of murdering one of the witnesses against him. He was tried this time in Clonmel, and on the evidence of the same witnesses, who had been disbelieved in Dublin, he was convicted and hanged. Father Sheehy asserted his innocence to the last, and his execution caused fearful excitement amongst the people all over Limerick and Tipperary, who considered him a martyr. The discovery of this coin by Mr. Frewen in the Cully mountain recalls to our minds the very unpleasant conditions under which the people existed during the reign of King George III.

A FAITHFUL SERVANT

By the death of Mrs. Maria Quin, there has been removed from the Rathkeale community a very old and much respected landmark. She was an employee of Madigan's, The Imperial Hotel, for close on sixty years, and during that long period as waitress came in contact with all units of the professional, commercial and cattle-dealing fraternity. With all classes she was a well liked and very popular figure.
If I were to write her epitaph, I would sum it up in these few short but very appropriate words:—Here lies the remains of a faithful, honest, industrious and trustworthy servant. M. M.

DEATH OF MRS. C. SHEAHAN RATHKEALE

The death occurred of Mrs.
Catherine Sheahan at her residence, Main Street, Rathkeale, on May 29th. She was the widow of the late John Sheahan, who was manager of the Creamery at Rathkeale for a number of years. The remains were removed to St. Mary's Church, Rathkeale, on Thursday evening and the funeral took place to Ardagh Cemetery on Friday.
The officiating clergy were:—Very Rev. Canon Mangan, P.P., V.F.; Rev. D. O'Callaghan, C.C., and Rev.
T. Costelloe, C.C.

the professed anxie-
tain powers to s-
handed justice met
all peoples.

* *

In view of all that pened, and is still it is difficult to be as to the future
national-relations.
ine effort is to be where to apply all
strict rule of jus-
have only to look at
of Poland, which has gracefully abandon terrible fate by th
that were supposed
gone to war in defer
liberty and integrat

* *

War criminals th
been, to be sure, but not all been on the or some people believe herself once r
officially, when j
her, leaders and sys
afterwards denounce
trinsically diabolica Churchill on one occ ferred to the suprem dictator as "the cr
the Kremlin," and la
to his health as "my friend, Stalin." It is typical of the dishon
so largely and ruinou acterises the counse
big nations even a global wars fought c
to make the world
democracy!