BOOKS FOR FARMERS

Under the above title a very useful booklet of 63 pages has been issued by Limerick County Library. It gives lists of books dealing with every aspect of progressive farming all over the world. The volumes set out, and all of which can be had through the County Library service, are of the widest variety and are most enlightening. The booklet is an excellent guide for farmers as to how they can procure without cost the most authoritative information and guidance relating to every side and feature of their business. Copies can be had from the County Library Headquarters, 71 O'Connell Street, Limerick, or from the "Limerick Leader," Printers and Publishers. Applications for books recommended in this very valuable guide may be made to the local Librarian in any district, or direct to the County Library Headquarters.

DIOCESE OF LIMERICK

His Lordship the Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. O'Neill, has appointed Very Rev. T. Canon Wall, P.P., Ballingarry, Canon Theologian of the Diocese. Very Rev. Timothy Murphy, P.P., Croagh, has been appointed a Canon of the Cathedral Chapter.

and John Murphy before the former won on the last green.

The final was played on Thursday evening and would have provided a close finish only that M. Quilligan lost his touch on the greens and three putted repeatedly. M. O'Connell won by 7 and 6. The winner thought so little of his chances at the start of the competition that he did not buy a share of himself in the sweep.

The Shannon Cup is now in full swing and first and second rounds must be completed by Saturday, 15th.

In order to facilitate members who wish to play in the Adare Open Meeting on Sunday, 16th, or who wish to see the hurling match—Limerick v. Tipperary—in Cork, it was decided that the qualifying round for the Quin Cup could be played on any day from 10th to 20th June inclusive. It is hoped that the members will give their fullest support to this competition.
