

...Dublin; Kildorrery, hostess, Miss

ENED.
of the Depart-Commerce an pened at the
the possible icians of the
ost of to-day
age to estab-
cause of the

LIMERICK

anor Nelson,
Morley Nelson,
erick, was on
non-foundation
ollege.

is a fifth year
anguages, was
School and en-
She read an
course and on obtained First English and
he Term Com-
nglish, and was dale Prize in 945.

as attained the
being elected a
ollege, and news
be learned with her numerous

INST C.I.E.

walking across Laoighaire, on seven-year-old
knocked down
ile going from
her. As a re-
was yesterday
a High Court
for injuries
air Eireann.

MUNION

ing last a very children received Communion at church, Hospital.
d by Very Rev.
P.P., V.F.

Hoping you will find room for this letter in your very popular newspaper.—I remain, yours truly, TERESA NOONAN.

WIDELY REGRETTE

The death of Miss Mary Lane (28), of Knockane, Abbeyfeale, which occurred after a couple of weeks illness, is very much regretted by many relatives and friends (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). She was accountant and general assistant at Messrs. W. D. O'Connor & Sons, merchants and millers, and was a lady of rare business ability—always kindly, courteous and generous in all her gentle ways of life. Many expressions of regret were conveyed to her bereaved parents and family.

TWO YEARS PENAL SERVITUDE

"I was surprised that the maximum sentence for offences of this kind was only two years," declared Judge Barra O Briain, S.C., at Limerick Circuit Criminal Court yesterday, when Patrick Corkery, Toureen, Croom, pleaded guilty to a serious offence against a sixteen-and-a-half years old girl.

Although he was never disposed to impose the maximum sentence, he would do so in this case. He imposed a sentence of two years penal servitude.

ACROSS BEFORE CABLE MESSAGE

Rev. John Galvin, P.P., Fresno, California, who has four other brothers priests on the Californian Missions at present (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent), landed at Rineanna Airport before his cable from Gander announcing his taking-off reached his sister, Mrs. Dr. Wm. O'Connor, Convent Terrace, Abbeyfeale.

WAR ON FOXES

Nine foxes were killed last week in O'Gonnoloe (writes our Killaloe correspondent). A few of the inhabitants have secured fox terniers with which to wipe out the marauders.

city. The painting is best after the brush Whelan, the artist re
the portraits in oils George Clancy and
Michael O'Callaghan,
be seen in the Coun
Town Hall.

* *

NOTHING DOING!

Though attention
frequently called to t
dirty condition of t
statues in the city,
been or is being done
appalling neglect. Oth
spect their monumen
them refurbished fro
time, but not so
which is supposed
"shop window" of
Why is it that the Co
not seen to it tha
statues—erected to
memories of great
properly cared for?
surprising, to say
Surely, it cannot be exchequer is in su
circumstances that a
cannot be found to
very necessary work.

* *

OUT OF TOWN.

The Mayor (Ald. M
is at present absent
on business in conne Typographical Associ
he is away Ald. D. E
acting as Deputy Ma
way, Ald. Hartney's
will come to an end
inst., when the City
meet to elect a new
understood that Mr.
(F.F.) will be unani to the Mayoralty. A
other candidate is in one is not likely to election day.