LABOUR PARTY

—oo—

ROXBORO' BRANCH

A meeting of the Roxboro' Branch of the Irish Labour Party was held at Roxboro' on the 12th inst.

The Chairman (Mr. James Green-smyth) brought under discussion the subject of the opening and repairing of the footpaths on the Rosbrien and Ballysheedy roads, as doing this work, he said, would be helping to keep down the number of road accidents.

It was decided that this proposal be brought under the notice of Mr. Michael Keyes, T.D.; Mr. Daniel Clancy and Mr. Sean Hayes, who have kindly consented to attend a meeting to be held at Ballysheedy Cross on Sunday evening, the 23rd inst., at 4 o'clock (summer time). Mr. Arthur Lyons will also attend to discuss the subject in further detail. All members and intending members are earnestly requested to attend.—William McNamara, Secretary, Raheen, Ballysheedy.

Dr. Patrick J. McMahon will be absent from 2 Pery Square, Limerick, until June 29th.
