

Union on Saturday, further consider these to appoint representation to wait on for Agriculture related proposed increased price delivered at creameries, matters.

THE MAIN ROADS

may be said about the the bye-roads of East our Killaloe correspond main roads there are ceptionally well. The dnacrusha to Clonlara repair. In the Killaloe, stone-breakers are engaged from early late in the evening the repair of the road to O'Briensbridge.

IN ELM TREE

engaged in tree-felling ar Kilmacthomas, Co. found 52 bats in the rge elm felled on Mon- ts were placed on the by side, and five flew in single file to year ended March 31 ers received subsidies o £161,828 14s. 3d. in certain sales of batch Lemass, Minister for Commerce, told the y.

ES TO BAKERS

MISSED A DAY

lily Jordan, daughters and Mrs. Elizabeth ogue, Milford, Charle- attended Dromina ool at the age of 4 are now, respectively, 10 years and have a school day.

PROFESSION

vent of Mercy, Kin- Sister Mary Peter, Mrs. T. Ryan and the y Ryan, Cornahalla, herick, made her final he is sister of Rev. D. rth Queensland, Aus-extended to Mr. Vaughan and his splendid band of willing helpers for their work on behalf of Irish-Ireland.

SIXTY YEARS A NUN

The death has taken place of Sister Mary Brendan O'Carroll, Convent of Mercy, Kilrush, in her 82nd year, and 60th year of her religious life. She was daughter of the late Patrick and Mrs. O'Carroll, Ballydaheen, Charleville.

Some of the clergy who attended the obsequies were—Very Rev. Canon J. Meade, P.P., V.F., Kilrush; Very Rev. A. J. McNamara, P.P., Doonbeg; Very Rev. C. Culligan, P.P., Cooraclare, and Very Rev. P. J. Hewitt, P.P., Kilmurry McMahon.

Chief mourners were:—Patrick O'Carroll, Ballydaheen, Charleville (brother); Patrick J. O'Carroll, (nephew); Mrs. T. O'Brien, Churchtown, Mrs. D. Ryan, Charleville, and Pauline O'Carroll (nieces); James and Mrs. Culhane, Douglas, Cork; Denis and Mrs. Gould, Ccoliline, Charleville, and Patrick Keane, Foxhall, Charleville (cousins).

SPECIAL TRAIN TO THURLES URGED

At the meeting of the Limerick Corporation on Monday night, the Mayor (Mr. J. C. Hickey), who presided, read a letter from Mr. J. O'Connell, Secretary County Board, G.A.A., urging the Council to make representations to C.I.E. to have an excursion train run from the city to Thurles in connection with the Munster final.

Ald. Carew, Ald. Hartney and other members urged that the Mayor make pressing representations to C.I.E. on the matter.

The Mayor said that he would act at once.

Ald. Bourke, T.D., said that he, too, would make representation to the Minister for Industry and Commerce.

PUBLIC LIGHTING FOR MILFORD

Last week, for the first time (writes our Dromcollogher correspondent), Milford got its first public with this very object Isn't it surprising th so many who never g to the safety of othe course, this class are standards of good beh were otherwise they they could not—be g criminal act of th carelessly and thou worthless thing that c be the cause of a ser to other users of the

A NEW BOARD.

The Limerick Harbo at present constituted, an end next month. provisions of the ne Act, which controls a the administrative fur our ports, the old Boa placed by a more body. The existing B up of seventeen memb body will have twenty number will be made five from the Corp from the Chamber o two representing the porters, two representi ation of Irish Manufa representing labour in nominated by the four to be elected electors.

MANY NOMINATION

It will be observed out of the twenty-th will be nominated in another. As a matte seems that the entire be a nominated body, only four qualified elec rick to vote for the to represent the impo porters. In these circ can be taken for gra