HURLING AT ADARE

On Sunday, 30th ult. (writes our Adare correspondent) a very exciting and thrilling game was witnessed. The contesting teams, Rathkeale and Granagh-Ballingarry, gave a great exhibition to over a thousand spectators, who were kept on the tip-toe of excitement almost to the final whistle.

Rathkeale opened the score by a point per Keane, who scored two further points, when Granagh got on their feet and scored two points per Tobin. Larkin, Keane, Neville and Fitzgerald added scores in the last half time for Rathkeale, and Daly and Chawke for Granagh.
Full time scores—Rathkeale, 3 goals 3 points, to 5 points for Granagh. The pitch was in perfect condition and all arrangements were admirably carried out.

POPULAR GAEL BEREAVED

Mr. David McCarthy, Castletownconyers, Co. Limerick, who died recently, was father of Mr. Stephen McCarthy, a prominent figure in local and inter-county hurling selections (writes our Ballyagran correspondent). He was also brother of Mr. Jack McCarthy, formerly well-known in Gaelic football circles in North Cork, and who captained Milford Football Club for many years. Deceased himself had been a life-long supporter of Gaelic games and athletics. A large and representative attendance was present at the funeral, which took place from Ballyagran Church to Ballinakill Cemetery. West Limerick Board, G.A.A., and Castletown Hurling Club have voted sympathy to Mr. McCarthy in his bereavement.

Keane put Rathkeale on the of-sive with a great burst, which pin-the opposing defence to their lines. Broderick saved a ticularly hot assault, but Jim Ne-landed the sliotar in the goalmoand the green flag waving signathe end to a fierce melee in "square." Rathkeale, once on-were never headed, for in the minute Tim Larkin had a spectacgoal all the way from mid-field turned the tide completely in favour. Ballygarry fought with all their characteristic fire spirit; ash flew and hurleys cra-as they went all out in an effort retrieve the situation, but all to avail, and just before the inter-Ernie Neville added another to give them a five point maj-facing the second half-hour, an-they rested—Rathkeale, 2-3; Ba-garry, 0-4.

Granagh lads. The latter, how-were game battlers, and fought harder than ever, but the lea-went further ahead when Jim R-got the correct range and sent the bar. Yet a Ballygarry c-back was not yet ruled out. Ch-Daly raised hopes with a p-which was the signal for fu-terrific assaults. Jimmy T-
