

TERMINATED." case where not only oneer neither the ex- he implied authority rs to sell, but where ad been terminated a the actual, material uctioneer's interest in terminated before the mpleted, and on that ould not find he was neration. He would of the owners of the ould dismiss the

BERG TRIAL

G'S DEFENCE

MISSION

remberg trial to-day, Counsel, for Marshal itted that the latter imself as a lover of anted to keep good Britain. Goering, he special powers except when Hitler was he Reich. He had no lement Hitler's orders ly according to rank econd in command.

OF MISSION IN NEWPORT

successful fortnight's brought to a close at ish Church on last ng. During the fort- ely large numbers morning and evening a very large congre- resent on Sunday to sermon, which was Rev. Father Shiggins, onducted the Mission, ner Ryan, M.S.S.

N OF PEALE AT ADARE

g season at Adare (correspondent there) up to the mark this

Asked by the Justice if the Order in question made any provision for overcharging in the circumstances appertaining to the present case, the Inspector said that the chocolates sold by Collopy were on quota from the manufacturers to retailers and the commencement of Black Market transactions was the purchase of this commodity in bulk from retailers, which was what Collopy must have done.

The Justice imposed a fine of £1.

FATAL ACCIDENT

TREE FALLS ON MAN

While engaged felling trees in a field at Roxboro, Limerick, this evening with others, a workman named John Roche, Cahernane, Ballyneety, sustained fatal injuries. It would appear that a tree fell on him, pinning him to the ground. When extricated he was unconscious, and the last rites of the Church were administered by Rev. W. O'Grady, C.C., St. John's. The injured man was taken to the Co. Infirmary in the Corporation ambulance, but life was pronounced extinct.

RATHKEALE EX-SERVICE MEN

A branch of the National Federation of Irish Ex-Service Men has been formed at Rathkeale and the following officials appointed—Chairman, Mr. James Hayes; Hon. Secretary, Mr. John Reddin; Joint Treasurers, Messrs. William Steele and David Madden, junr. Committee—Messrs. Michael Russell, Wm. Gleeson and Patrick Jones.

As may be seen from the advertisement in this week's issue of the "Leader," the branch has already started activities with the organising of a concert and question time to be held in the Deel Hall on Sunday night. A very enjoyable programme is arranged and a crowded house is expected.

married and had three

The Justice imposed

A "PINT" IN

WAS EJECTED B

Before his case v defendant of the i appeared in Limerick to-day carrying in his of stout. Gardai took where he duly pu "inside."

The case was on James Harty, no f was charged with the donkey, value 15/-, th Peter O'Donoghue, als address.

Supt. Colleran pro Harty, who was not represented, came in house before the hea a pint of stout in his officers put him outsi disposed of it.

Harty told the Just donkey to O'Donogh O'Donoghue owed hir later took the donkey

Donoghue said that last he bought a don defendant for 15/- donkey to a post in C and when he returned the donkey had been He was not sure whet owed the defendant £1 fond of drink. He a gave no permission dant to take away th "we are all one" h explained that he dic press charges against

When District Justi he believed the case squabble between iti Colleran pointed out officers had spent ma ing to find the missin

On that account th he would have to be s defendant. He impos of one month's impr

RECENT BAKER

(To the Editor "Lim