

Group Section—1st prize, Masters P. and J. Walsh and M. Gallagher (Going My Way); 2nd prize, Masters P. and J. Hennigan (The Refugees).

LATE MR. T. HALPIN, KILLEEN

His numerous friends throughout the district (writes our Hospital correspondent), learned with deep regret of the death of Mr. Timothy Halpin, which sad event took place at his residence, Killeen, Ballylanders. Deceased, who was an esteemed member of the farming community, was a native of Baggotstown, Hospital, and a member of a well-known East Limerick family. He was brother of the late Monsignor John Halpin, Dubuque, father of Sister Albius, Mercy Order, Lancashire, and uncle of Sisters Cecilia and Aloysius, Warrenmount Convent, and of Sister M. Evangelist, Presentation Convent, Clondalkin. To his sisters, Mrs. P. J. Leahy, Main Street, Hospital, and Mrs. T. Carroll, Baggotstown, the deepest sympathy is extended. His remains were removed to Glenbrohane Church, and the funeral took place to the family burial ground, Knockainey, where the interment was made in the presence of a large and representative attendance.

CAHIRMEE FAIR

Buttevant was crowded this week for the famous Cahirmee fair. Prominent buyers were in attendance from all parts of Ireland and from across Channel, and numerous sales at good prices were effected on Tuesday, Wednesday and yesterday, although to-day (Friday) is the actual fair day. Mr. Jack Reidy, Rivermount, Clarina, Co. Limerick, sold a handsome 4 year-old grey mare, made hunter, by "Mountain Boy," to Mr. White, Liffey Bank,

Messrs. Maher also disposed, recently, of the licensed and general business premises for Mrs. M. Nyhan, at Hollyford, Tipperary, to Mr. Thomas Quinlan, Terryglass, at £625 and auction fees. Messrs. N. F. Maher and Co., solicitors, Tipperary, had carriage of sale.

TWO GAELIC CONTESTS AT RATHKEALE

Two G.A.A. contests were decided at Rathkeale on Sunday (writes our Rathkeale correspondent). The minor hurling match, Pallaskerry v. Croom, was a nice display of lively hurling that held the interest of spectators. Croom, playing with the breeze, lead by 1-1 to 0-3 at half time and added another point to their margin before Pallaskerry went all out for victory after the resumption. Croom put up a strong defence to the end but in the last twenty minutes Pallaskerry showed up as the better combination.

Final score—Pallaskerry, 4-4; Croom, 1-3.

J. Brennan was the referee.

The junior football match was very disappointing, it was simply a scoring holiday for the Ballysteen boys, who got points and goals with almost the same facility whether playing with or against the wind.

Final scores — Ballysteen, 6-6; Carrickerry, 0-4.

Mr. P. Brennan was referee.

FOYNES CARNIVAL

The forthcoming Carnival to be held in Foynes from July 26th to August 5th (writes our Foynes correspondent) was full matter for discussion at a meeting of the committee on Monday last. Rev. Fr. Cussen, C.C., presided, Mr. Frank Buckley being the Hon. Secretary. It was decided to include in the Carnival every event in keeping with the