

At the Sale Mart, Tipperary, on Tuesday, 9th inst., Messrs. N. Maher and Sons, auctioneers, offered for sale for Mr. Charles J. Maher, his six day licensed and grocery business premises, together with three-storey private house, with shop attached, also large garden and yard at rear, situate at Main Street and Abbey Street, Tipperary.

Widespread interest was shown in the sale, and a large audience was present in the Sale Mart for the Auction. Bidding started at £2000 and after much lively competition amongst eight or nine bidders, it was left to Mr. Wm. F. O'Connell, solicitor, Tipperary, and Mr. J. J. O'Connor, Tipperary, to continue the bidding between them. After a further period of keen exchanges, Mr. O'Connell was declared the purchaser in trust for Messrs. Kelly and Co., Ltd., the well known and extensive wholesale merchants, Tipperary, at £5,000 and auction fees.

Messrs. James F. D'Arcy and Co., solicitors, Tipperary, had carriage of sale.

Messrs. Maher also disposed, recently, of the licensed and general business premises for Mrs. M. Nyhan, at Hollyford, Tipperary, to Mr. Thomas Quinlan, Terryglass, at £625 and auction fees. Messrs. N. F. Maher and Co., solicitors, Tipperary, had carriage of sale.

Sunday, 21st inst., the closing night. The Donkey Derby during the week was won by J. Burns. Great credit is due to the committee who worked so hard and carried out the arrangements so perfectly. It is hoped that the train service from the city will be packed to capacity on Sunday next, as the object of the Carnival should appeal to most city folk, being in aid of the Adare Catholic Church and the sponsor of the Carnival, Very Rev. Canon Thornhill, P.P., being well known to them, having laboured in the city for many years.

DEATH OF WEST LIMERICK OCTOGENARIAN

The death of Mr. Nicholas Forde, of Ballycommane, Tournafulla, occurred after a protracted illness at the age of 84 (writes our Abbeyfeale correspondent). A man highly respected and esteemed, and a member of an old West Limerick family with numerous relatives in West Limerick and Kerry, his funeral to Abbeyfeale for interment in the old Abbey Cemetery was of very large proportions. Many expressions of sympathy were conveyed to his bereaved widow. The prayers at the graveside were read by the Rev. Father Moriarty, P.P., Tournafulla, and Rev. Father Curtin, C.S.Sp.

TERROR CAMPAIGN

It is reported that "execution squads" of a Japanese secret society in Brazil are continuing a reign of terror campaign against compatriots who do not believe that Japan won the war. They have already killed three and wounded six Japanese in three towns.
