LATE MISS HAWKER

—oo—

AN APPRECIATION

On Saturday last in Killee that she loved so well, Miss Emmeline Hawker passed to her eternal reward. Limerick in general will be the poorer for her loss. Miss Hawker was a Christian in the very highest sense of the word—she was generous to the last degree, and never refused help for any good object, irrespective of creed or class. Many poor people have been helped by her and mourn the loss of her kindly sympathy. Miss Hawker loved flowers and as she had the ability of painting what she saw, she has left behind her some gems of water colours—she used to take her little stool and her paints to our beautiful park, and paint there. Miss Hawker was also a good citizen and loved her native city, Limerick, and did all in her power for its good.

I am sure all who knew her will join with me in expressing sympathy with her sisters in their sorrow.

Record entries have been received for all the competitions, including the championship stonewall, and the event promises to be one of the most successful of its kind ever held in West Limerick. A record crowd is expected and patrons are assured of a great day's sport. As already announced in our advertising columns, a gymkhana dance will be held at the Desmond Hall on Sunday night.
